Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The readings of this weekend speak of forgiveness and of mercy for ourselves and for others, and show us they are related to each other. They bring to evidence our need of God's forgiveness, and our dependence on God for everything, especially for salvation.

Peter gets surprised by trying to be generous in offering to forgive seven times a day, with Jesus telling him that seventy seven times is the limit for daily forgiveness. Implying that we should forgive always, Jesus is asking us to forgive from the heart, and shows us how generous is God in forgiving us. To forgive others when they ask for forgiveness is not so difficult, but forgiving someone who doesn't ask for it is more difficult.

Fact that we are asked to forgive always, does not mean that we should not defend ourselves against someone's aggression. We should protect ourselves always, and we should defend ourselves always. Aggression is a direct violation of our right to life and liberty. This is why as we remember 9/11, and we honor the victims and seek the justice for something that never should have happened.

Violence and war is always wrong. Nobody is a winner in those two. It is an offense to God who made us capable of dialogue, and we should resolve our differences by dialogue. War is the last resort for defending oneself from the aggression. We have a right to defend our life and liberty, our health and property. Any form of aggression is wrong.

Last Sunday the Scripture spoke about the need for fraternal correction, that should be done out of love, with regard towards the truth that is evident to us. But even in correcting others we have to be respectful of the other person, so that we don't hurt them in the name of our right to be correct. It is very difficult to express our differences with others, and it is even more difficult to forgive being hurt in some way. But attitude of mercy and forgiveness is necessary for ourselves to be healed, and not to be filled with hatred and resentment that would ultimately hurt us more. We are asked to be healed and to heal by leaving ultimate judgments to God, and to expect justice and salvation from God himself.

We need to strive for justice and proper education, so that we could live respectfully with others. We condemn violence in any form and we pray for victims of gang violence that we experienced over the years. Seeking justice for the victims we pray for healing of broken hearts and lives. This process takes time and is not automatic. Forgiveness is a process of healing, and it takes time and dedication to it in order to achieve it. Let us not be surprised that it hurts, as the hurts that we received don't go away instantly.

Seeking justice is part of our rights and education and prevention from the wrongs to be perpetuating. The dialogue and reasoning has to be done about it. Ultimate healing and rest we will find only in the Lord, and our salvation comes from Him. As St. Paul said we are the Lord's in life and in death. This is why it is so consoling to know, that the Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger and rich in compassion as the Psalm tells us.

Have a blessed 9/11. I know it's after when you read it, but it is my prayer for you before it passes this year, and we keep promise to remember it always.

God bless everyone always!!! F. Stan

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

Las lecturas de este fin de semana hablan del perdón y misericordia para nosotros y para los demás, y nos muestran que están relacionados entre sí. Ponen en evidencia nuestra necesidad del perdón de Dios y nuestra dependencia de Dios en todo, especialmente para la salvación.

Pedro se sorprende al tratar de ser generoso al ofrecer perdonar siete veces al día, y Jesús le dice que setenta y siete veces es el límite para el perdón diario. Implicando que debemos perdonar siempre, Jesús nos pide que perdonemos de corazón y nos muestra cuan generoso es Dios al perdonarnos. Perdonar a los demás cuando piden perdón no es tan difícil, pero perdonar a alguien que no lo pide es más difícil.

El hecho de que hayamos pedido perdón siempre, no significa que no debemos defendernos de la agresión de alguien. Debemos protegernos siempre y defendernos siempre. La agresión es una violación directa de nuestro derecho a la vida y la libertad. Por eso, cuando recordamos el 11 de Septiembre, honramos a las víctimas y buscamos justicia por algo que nunca debería haber sucedido.

La violencia y la guerra siempre están mal. Nadie es un ganador entre esos dos. Es una ofensa a Dios que nos hizo capaces de dialogar, y debemos resolver nuestra diferencia mediante el dialogo. La guerra es el último recurso para defenderse de la agresión. Tenemos derecho a profundizar nuestra vida y libertad, nuestra salud y propiedad. Cualquier forma de agresión esta mal.

El Domingo pasado la Escritura hablaba de la necesidad de la corrección fraterna, que debe hacerse por amor, en la mirada a la verdad que nos es evidente. Pero incluso al corregir a los demás, tenemos que ser respetuosos con la persona de los demás, para no lastimarlos en nombre de nuestro derecho a estar en lo correcto. Es muy difícil expresar nuestras diferencias con los demás y es aun más difícil perdonar el haber sido herido de alguna manera. Pero la actitud de misericordia y perdón es necesaria para que podamos ser sanados, y no para estar llenos de odio y resentimiento que finalmente nos lastimarían más. Se nos pide que seamos sanados y que sanemos dejando los juicios definitivos a Dios, y que esperemos justicia y salvación de Dios mismo.

Necesitamos luchar por la justicia y la educación adecuada, para poder vivir respetuosamente con los demás. Condenamos la violencia en cualquier forma y oramos por las víctimas de la violencia de las pandillas que hemos experimentado a lo largo de los años. Buscando justicia para las víctimas, oramos por la curación de vidas y corazones rotos. Este proceso lleva tiempo y no es automático. El perdón es un proceso de curación, y se necesita tiempo y dedicación para lograrlo. No nos sorprendamos de que duela, ya que las heridas que recibimos no desaparecen instantáneamente.

Buscar justicia es parte de nuestros derechos y la educación y la prevención de los males que se van a perpetuar. El dialogo y el razonamiento deben realizarse al respecto.

La curación y el descanso definitivos los encontraremos solo en el Señor, y nuestra salvación viene de El. Como dijo San Pablo, somos del Señor en la vida y en la muerte. Por eso es tan consolador saber que el Señor es bondadoso y misericordioso, lento para la ira y rico en compasión, como nos dice el Salmo.

Tengo una bendición para el 11 de Septiembre. Se que es después cuando lo lees, pero es mi oración por ti antes de que pase este año, y mantenemos la promesa de recordarlo siempre.

Dios les bendiga siempre!!!

From the desk of Fr. John Victor

Dans l'Évangile, Pierre consulte Jésus sur un sujet très concret qui héberge dans le cœur de beaucoup de personnes: il demande la limite du pardon. La réponse consiste en ce que la dite limite n'existe pas: "je ne te dis pas jusqu'à sept fois, mais jusqu'à soixante-dix fois sept" (Mt 18,22). Pour expliquer cette réalité, Jésus emploie une parabole. La question du roi centre le sujet de la parabole: "Ne devais-tu pas aussi compatir à ton compagnon, de la même façon que j'ai compati à toi ?" (Mt 18,33). Le pardon est un don, une grâce qui procède de l'amour et la miséricorde de Dieu. Pour Jésus, le pardon n'a pas de limites, chaque fois que le repentir est sincère et véridique. Mais il exige d'ouvrir le cœur à la conversion, c'est-à-dire, agir avec les autres selon les critères de Dieu.

Le grave péché nous écarte du Dieu (cf. "Catéchisme de l'Église Catholique" n. 1470). Le véhicule ordinaire pour recevoir le pardon de ce grave péché de la part du Dieu est le sacrement de la Pénitence, et l'acte du pénitent que la couronne est la satisfaction. Les propres œuvres qui manifestent la satisfaction sont le signe de l'engagement personnel que le chrétien a assumé devant Dieu de commencer une nouvelle existence, en réparant dans le possible les dommages causés au prochain. Il ne peut pas y avoir un pardon du péché sans un genre de satisfaction, dont la fin est: 1. Éviter de glisser vers d'autres plus graves péchés; 2. Repousser le péché (puisque les peines satisfaisantes sont comme un frein et font le pénitent plus prudent et vigilant); 3. Enlever avec les actes vertueux les habitudes mauvaises contractés avec le mal vivre; 4. Assimiler à Christ. Que le Seigneur vous accorde la grace du pardon et aussi la joie de se sentir pardonner para les autres.

"Ven ilumina el camino para comenzar un viaje que nunca olvidarás acompañado de la luz eterna de Cristo".

Come lite the way to begin an exciting journey, one you will never forget! The eternal light of your journey with Christ.

(RCIA)

Do you know a man or woman 18 years or older who have expressed an interest in joining our Catholic Faith? Or who has not yet completed their sacraments.

Adults are introduced to the Catholic Church through a process called the "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)". We will study the Scriptures, discuss Catholic teaching, and most importantly, get a true, good and honest idea about what the Catholic Church is really all about.

RCIA focuses on the teachings and experiences of our Catholic Faith and prepares individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist.

Through weekly gatherings, those attending gain a deeper appreciation and understanding of our Catholic beliefs and practices.

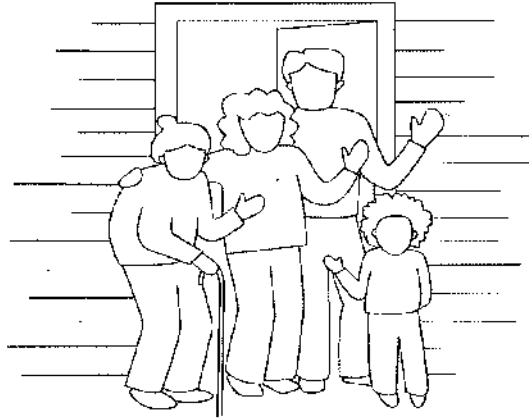

If you would like to take this journey of faith, please call Office of Family Faith Formation 631-231-7344. Our office hours are 4:00PM – 8:00PM Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

CENSUS 101: WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

The 2020 Census is closer than you think!
Here's a quick refresher of what it is and why it's essential that everyone is counted.

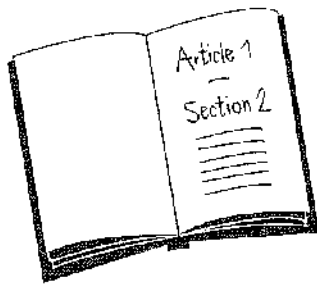

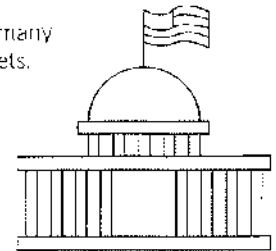

Everyone counts.

The census counts every person living in the U.S. once, only once, and in the right place.

It's about fair representation.

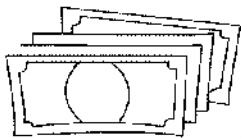

Every 10 years, the results of the census are used to reapportion the House of Representatives, determining how many seats each state gets.

It's in the constitution.

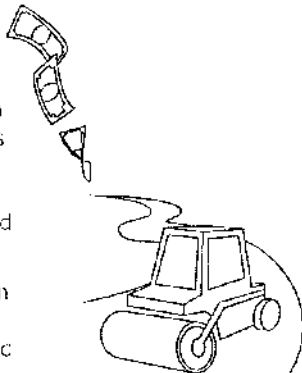

The U.S. Constitution mandates that everyone in the country be counted every 10 years. The first census was in 1790.

It's about $675 billion.

The distribution of more than $675 billion in federal funds, grants and support to states, counties and communities are based on census data.

That money is spent on schools, hospitals, roads, public works and other vital programs.

It's about redistricting.

After each decade's census, state officials redraw the boundaries of the congressional and state legislative districts in their states to account for population shifts.

Taking part is your civic duty.

Completing the census is mandatory: it's a way to participate in our democracy and say "I COUNT!"
