Fifth Sunday of Easter

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The calendar spring started in March, but the change to warmer weather is perceived now with the visible signs of spring flowers, trees blooming, and grass starting to take off. We could say it is all fruit of the Resurrection of Jesus, that brings new life to every aspect of our lives. An Easter lily, is one of the symbols of Resurrection, dressed in a “white cloth “that was left by Christ in the tomb, creating a harmony with it. It is a beautiful feeling to perceive spring as a factor of Resurrection, as a consequence of it. Without Resurrection, the spring was destined to die permanently one day, but with the Resurrection it is destined to be eternal like Christ. If there is beauty in newness of life, Christ makes it eternal, unending. By faith in Christ we acquire rights to that eternal spring. Like that grain of wheat from the parable, that sown to the ground is lost to itself, but it comes back to life in multiple seeds with great fruitfulness and infinite perspective of becoming countless.

In the parable of this Sunday, Jesus compares our dependence of Resurrection on Jesus, to the fruitfulness and growth of the vine, that is dependent on being connected to the stem of the vine prepared to power all necessary growth and fruitfulness of this vine. The vine needs to be pruned to produce a good fruits, and the new branch by itself cannot produce the fruits without total dependence on the old stem of the vine. Without Christ, there is no Resurrection. Without Christ, there is no eternal life. Without Christ, life ends in the tomb. Lord, give us that gift of eternal life, give us the blessings of friendship with You. Friendship that will carry us to eternal life with you.

Last Sunday we accepted you as our Good Shepherd, please guide us to the eternal pastures. This and next Sunday we will have children receive their First Communion, they will be invited to nourish themselves for eternal life, to receive the abundance of blessings and fullness of happiness from Jesus.

This year we will have 136 children and youth receive their First Communion, at four Sunday Masses, that is 9:00 am, and 11:00 am this and next Sunday. We congratulate them for entering the new stage of their lives of particular closeness to Christ through Holy Communion. I am always amazed when the little children of preschool age desire to receive Communion based on their observance of their parents and siblings receiving it. Lord give us that hunger for you always, and bless the parents of those children with a strong faith and perseverance in perusing the gift of eternal happiness with Christ. There is no happiness without Christ, with Him there is the abundance of happiness and fullness of joy. Lord, lead all the family’s of First Communion children to that fullness of joy and happiness with you, in pursuing your friendship daily. What joy it is to have you Jesus as a personal friend and guide for individual and for whole family ??? Let us not loose the appreciation of the love and sacrifice that Jesus shared with us, let’s treasure it and grow in intimate friendship with Christ. Let’s be driven to become faithful friends of Jesus worthy of the gifts of his love.

God bless everyone !!!
God bless you always !!!

Fr. Stan

SACRAMENTAL INFORMATION

La Alegoría de la Vid (Jn 1, 1-8)

La alegoría de la Vid es complementaria de la parábola del Buen Pastor, también podemos decir que hay una mutua dependencia entre sus “componentes”: Vid-sarmientos, Pastor-ovejas...en ambos hay como una mutua dependencia, o una conexión íntima, al final una aspiración suprema: Vid que da la savia a los sarmientos unidos a ella y/o el Buen pastor que da la vida por las ovejas. En cualquier caso, entendemos que es Cristo que da o se da todo para que nosotros tengamos vida. La Palabra y la Eucaristía son ese elemento que hoy -cada domingo- comunica lo mejor de quien lo origina: del Padre (Labrador), y del Hijo (Vid)...y del E.S. (Savia: Gracia).

La clave en todo esto es el permanecer...mantenerse unidos, si algo se separa de la fuente de vida se seca, o se queda estéril. Pasa con los árboles, con la tierra y con las personas. También, se puede ser una rama lozana de un arbusto, llena de hojas pero que no da fruto (y de eso hay mucho en todos los ambientes). Es aquello de la fe, sin o con obras. Uno es cristiano de nombre (bautizado católico y devoto de la Virgencita...etc.), o cristiano activo (bautizado también, muy mariano y piadoso), lleno de frutos o de buenas obras. En el primer caso, no se soporta “la poda”, en el segundo, la poda se vuelve hasta necesaria, una exigencia, o algo que se busca, digamos que está relacionado un poco con la Conversión y con un estilo de vida. Bendiciones.

CAMPAÑA DE APOYO A
LOS MINISTERIOS CATÓLICOS
2018

Apoyando el Dramático Crecimiento Misionero en Long Island y más allá.

Las manos de la Misericordia de Cristo.

Compartiendo nuestros dones a través de la Campaña para los Ministerios Católicos Vivimos agradecidos por las bondades que el Señor nos concede y estamos dispuestos a ponernos al servicio de Dios. Nuestra gratitud al Señor se refleja en nuestras palabras y obras, en lo que hacemos o dejamos de hacer. Como personas dispuestas a servir a Cristo buscamos compartir nuestros dones. Una forma de compartirlos es a través de la Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos. La Campaña ofrece diversas maneras de cómo hacerlo.

Donando recursos financieros: Obviamente, cuando pensamos en la Campaña de los Ministerios Católicos, pensamos en colaborar económicamente. Con los fondos que anualmente recaudamos, hemos ayudado a más de 600,000 hermanas y hermanos. Noten que difícilmente, una sola persona o una sola parroquia podrían ayudar a tantas personas. En cambio la Campaña nos une como una sola Iglesia de Long Island y eso nos permite ayudar mucho más que lo que una sola persona, un grupo, o una sola parroquia pudiera hacer.

Donando tiempo y talentos: Aparte de donaciones monetarias, otra manera de colaborar con la Campaña es donando su tiempo y talentos. Por ejemplo usted podría unirse a algún grupo de su parroquia, algún comité que esté apoyando y organizando la recaudación de fondos a favor de la Campaña. También podría unirse como voluntario en los ministerios que la Campaña apoya. Uno de los grandes beneficios de la Campaña es la comunicación. Queremos mantener a la gente informada sobre nuestra Diócesis: las buenas obras, los programas y las oportunidades. La Campaña propaga las buenas obras de la Iglesia y nos da oportunidades de compartir los dones con los que Dios nos ha bendecido.

Donando Oraciones y Plegarias: La Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos nos acerca a las personas que ayudamos. A través de la oración podemos estar mejor "conectados" con nuestras hermanas y hermanos.

En nuestras oraciones, podemos pedir por aquellos que contribuyen con la Campaña, por los voluntarios, por las personas que se benefician de la Campaña, e incluso podemos orar por aquellos que –independientemente de sus razones- no pueden participar.

¡La Campaña de Apoyo a los Ministerios Católicos es poner el servicio en acción!

*Por favor considere hacer un donativo y haga la diferencia en la vida de las personas.

Sharing Our Gifts through the CMA

As stewards, we choose to live our lives in thanksgiving to our generous God. Our actions and words - what we choose to do or not to do - are all examples of our gratitude. Christian stewards seek ways to share what we have been given. One very important vehicle for exercising our stewardship is the Catholic Ministries Appeal. The CMA allows us an opportunity to share our gifts in many different ways.

Gift of Financial Resources: Of course, when we think of the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we think of sharing our financial resources. More than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers received support and assistance from the funds shared through the CMA each year. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.

Gifts of Time and Talent: In addition to money, the CMA offers opportunities to share our time and talent. Parishes often form CMA committees to support a smooth and organized Appeal effort. Others share their gifts by volunteering in the ministries that the CMA supports. One of the great benefits of the Appeal is communication. People are informed of the many good works, programs and opportunities in this diocese. The CMA tells of the good works of the Church and communicates the opportunities to share our God-given gifts.

Gift of Prayer: The Catholic Ministries Appeal brings us closer to those we help and support. We can become more "connected" with our sisters and brothers through prayer. We may wish to pray for those who support the Appeal, those who volunteer, those who receive support and even those who cannot participate for whatever reason.

La première communion : un peu d'histoire

Longtemps, l'Eglise a cru bon de retarder l'accès à ce sacrement.

L'usage antique, conservé dans l'Eglise d'Orient, était de donner la communion à l'enfant le jour de son baptême sous la forme du vin. La communion par le vin disparaît en Occident vers le XIIe siècle. On dissocie alors la communion du baptême. Le Concile de Latran IV (1215) prescrit d'attendre l'âge de "discretion", entre 10 et 16 ans. Antonin de Florence recommande 9 ans et demi pour les filles et 10 et demi pour les garçons. En France depuis le XVIIe siècle se répand la pratique de la communion solennelle inventée par Monsieur Vincent (de Paul) et les grands missionnaires. Vêtement blanc, cierge, renonciation à Satan et profession de foi, la communion solennelle est célébrée vers 12 ans.

La première communion devient la "communion privée". Au XIXe siècle, Rome encourage une communion des enfants vers 7 ans. En 1910, le pape Pie X demande dans l'encyclique Quam Singularis que les enfants puissent communier à partir de 7 ans, il pose deux conditions : l'enfant doit pouvoir distinguer le pain ordinaire du pain eucharistique et croire en Dieu, à la Trinité et à l'incarnation.

Depuis 1983, le Code de l'Eglise dit " Pour que la très Sainte Eucharistie puisse être donnée aux enfants, il est requis qu'ils aient une connaissance suffisante et qu'ils aient reçu une préparation soignée, de sorte qu'ils comprennent le mystère du Christ à la mesure de leur capacité et puissent recevoir le Corps du Seigneur avec foi et dévotion".
