FEAST OF THE
ASSUMPTION OF MARY
Wednesday, August 15, 2018
ALL PARISH OFFICES WILL BE CLOSED ON THIS DAY AND WILL REOPEN ON THURSDAY.

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

On August 6th we had celebrated the Feast of the Transfiguration of Jesus. When Jesus presented himself to Peter, James and John transfigured in his glory and talking in the cloud with Moses and Elijah. Then the voice spoke from heaven: "this is my beloved son listen to him." Similarly in our lives God wants us to make the experiences of Mount Tabor, those mystical moments, those moments of Transfiguration that would carry us over in other times; times of trouble, times of desert, times of suffering, and times of hunger. The whole proclamation of the gospel, is a revelation of God's glory and of God's love for us. But in the human extent of Jesus' life, it is a time of preparation for the scandal of the cross. It is only after Jesus loses his life, and after the three days of darkness of the tomb, that the fullness of Jesus' glory is revealed in his resurrection. It was after the resurrection, that Jesus told his three disciples, to talk about what they have seen in the transfiguration. In that time, it was all going to make better sense, and give all the events a better meaning.

As we ponder the theme of bread of life in the readings of this Sunday, we realize that Jesus is doing a similar thing, trying to reveal to us those hints of glory, that is hidden in the mystery of the transubstantiation in the Eucharist. He talks to us about two different worlds that coexist simultaneously, that is our visible world of now, and that of the invisible world of eternity. Jesus wants our hearts and minds to be open to both of those realities always, because they both condition and express each other. The eternal love and power of God becomes visible in here and now, and then it goes again into the eternity by becoming a thing of past, that through the power of faith we can make visible again in here and now.

The first Eucharist, that was celebrated by Jesus in the past, through faith becomes present to us here and now, but in Jesus' reality it brings us to the future of eternity with God. As St John says; - we will become like God, because we will see him as He is.- eternal in heaven. We all need to ponder in our minds and in our hearts; what it means - to rise from the dead - and what it means -to eat the bread from heaven that lasts forever -.

Jesus wants each one of us to experience his transfiguration. He wants each one of us to perceive his glory and to participate in it in faith now, and in reality of heaven forever after. We can say with the disciples: - Jesus give us this bread always, so that we may not hunger-. This is what it means: to satisfy our hearts and minds and bodies and souls, it means to make us happy for eternity starting from now and today.

When did you see some hints of God's glory in your life ? When did you see Jesus Transfiguration before you, were you ever invited by Him into the intimacy of his glory ?

Try and open your mind and heart to see it. If you didn't, it is most probably because of your worldliness, your lack of faith and self centeredness that's holding you back, that makes you see only the things of this world that are passing, but what about those that last forever ??? Do you believe in - forever- ??? Does it make a difference in your life ???

Lord I thank You once more for the Feast of St Anne, for all the people preparing, donating, helping, serving and enjoying it. It was a hint of your love in action, it was a hint of your glory seen on the faces of people. It was a hint of Transfiguration, it was a moment of transformation for those who let themselves be transformed by faith and love. I thank everyone for sharing in the feast, I thank You for being the hint of God's glory to others.

medically necessary hysterectomy that will have an unintended side effect of rendering her unable to have more children. However, she may not have the procedure for the purpose of preventing her from having more children.¹³ It is also permissible for a couple to use natural family planning (NFP) to space the births of their children, as long as this is for a just, and not a selfish, reason. In NFP couples observe natural periods of fertility and abstain from sexual intercourse during those times. Contraception and natural family planning are essentially different since in the former the couple interferes with what nature intends, while in the latter the couple makes use of an option that nature provides.¹⁴

In our diocese the Gianna Center for Women's Health and Fertility provides medical assistance, information and training to women in all these areas in accord with the teaching of Humanae Vitae, honoring the dignity and sanctity of human life.¹⁵ This health care center is committed to delivering high-quality, scientifically based, and ethically sound healthcare for all women, including preventive and specialized obstetrical and gynecologic care. It offers women a natural, restorative and scientifically based approach to improving their overall health while addressing their fertility issues. Couples having difficulty conceiving a child need not resort to methods like in vitro fertilization, which the Church's moral teaching prohibits. The Gianna Center can assist couples who wish to conceive in methods which are natural, holistic, and healthy for both mother and child, and which are also morally acceptable.

III. Pope Blessed Paul VI: A Prophet for Our Times

Pope Paul asserts that the use of contraception in society will: (1) Lead to an increase of infidelity in relationships. (2) Lead to a general weakening of morals throughout society. (3) Lead men to lose respect for women. (4) Lead public authorities to force contraception upon people for the public good. Additionally, the Holy Father adds the danger that people will come to think that they, and not God, have complete dominion over their own bodies, and may therefore use or alter them at will.

These prophecies were roundly mocked and were considered extreme and even fantastic in the Pope's day. However, the "contraceptive mentality" that Pope St. John Paul spoke of¹⁶ has resulted in precisely the opposite: an increase of infidelity; a shocking weakening of morals in society; greater problems in male and female relationships and a loss of mutual respect; government interference through the "contraceptive mandate" in healthcare, and "contraceptive imperialism"¹⁷, where wealthy countries force poor countries to institute abortion and contraception programs as a requirement for foreign aid.

There has been a great increase in divorce, children born outside of marriage, abuse of children, the redefinition of marriage, and now transgender ideology. What was promised has not brought the results intended, but rather the direct opposite. It has had catastrophic consequences for individuals and families. The promises and optimism of 1968 have only proved the Pope of that year to have been truly a prophet.

Pope Paul explains that the Church has a duty to preach the whole Moral Law: both the Natural Law and the Law of the Gospel. In another important sentence of the document, he states: "Since the Church did not make either of these laws, she cannot change them. She can only be their guardian and interpreter; thus, it would not be right for her to declare as morally permissible that which is truly not so."¹⁸

Pope Paul concludes his letter by giving "pastoral directives" to various members of society who will have the greatest responsibility in carrying out God's plan: he warns public authorities that they must safeguard morals and the family; he warns scientists, doctors and nurses to use their abilities in favor of life and not against it; he begs spouses to live their marriages as God intended; he stresses with priests that it is their solemn duty to teach the truth about marriage for the salvation of souls; and he tells bishops that promoting this teaching is their greatest work at the present time.

IV. Pope Saint John Paul II & Pope Francis

The teaching of Pope Blessed Paul VI in Humanae Vitae stands in agreement with that of his predecessors throughout the ages, as well as his successors, especially Pope Saint John Paul II and Pope Francis. Throughout his pontificate Pope John Paul preached the “Gospel of Life” and became Humanae Vitae’s staunchest defender. Through his talks on the “Theology of the Body”, and his encyclicals and apostolic exhortations like Veritatis Splendor, Evangelium Vitae, and Familiaris Consortio, Pope Saint John Paul II to the day of his death continued to preach and teach the truth of Humanae Vitae, and its necessity for happy, healthy and holy families.

Pope Francis will canonize Pope Blessed Paul VI on October 14, 2018. Pope Francis frequently quotes Pope Paul and references his Humanae Vitae teaching. The Holy Father has identified a “social and spiritual crisis” so severe that “never before has proclaiming the Gospel on the Family ... been more urgent and necessary.”¹⁹ The Pope has said: “The defense of the environment and the fight against exclusion demand that we recognize a moral law written into human nature itself, one which includes the natural difference between man and woman, and absolute respect for life in all its stages and dimensions.”²⁰

In 2015, at a meeting with families in Manila, Pope Francis said: “I think of Blessed Paul VI. At a time when the problem of population growth was being raised, he had the courage to defend openness to life in families. He ... looked at the peoples of the earth and he saw this threat of families being destroyed for lack of children. Paul VI was courageous; he was a good pastor and he warned his flock of the wolves who were coming ... Our world needs good and strong families to overcome these threats! ... Every threat to the family is a threat to society itself. The future of humanity, as Saint John Paul II often said, passes through the family ... Be sanctuaries of respect for life, proclaiming the sacredness of every human life from conception to natural death.”²¹

V. Humanae Vitae: A Document of the Past, A Solution for the Present, A Path for the Future

Bishop Barres sees this anniversary of Humanae Vitae as a God-given opportunity to teach something about the Catholic Faith that is absolutely crucial to marriages, families, and our lives as Catholics. Understanding the teaching of Humanae Vitae, believing it, and living it, is one of the first and most important answers to the crisis of our time. The Bishop believes that the future Pope Saint Paul VI wrote Humanae Vitae more for our times than even for his own. Today, it can become the first step in repairing the injury between men and women, husbands and wives, parents and children, the family and society.

He encourages all the faithful of the diocese to begin again by examining this teaching and then applying it to their lives, promising the help of the bishops and priests of the diocese in answering questions, providing guidance, and through the grace of the sacraments, especially Confession and the Holy Eucharist.

Bishop Barres thanks the priests of the diocese for their dedication to serving God and His people in the vineyard of the Lord. In this fiftieth anniversary year, he encourages all his priests to read again the Encyclical Letter of Pope Paul VI, and to use this pastoral letter as a tool. He asks priests to help their parishioners come to see the truth and beauty of the Holy Father’s teaching. He asks them to preach it from the pulpit, to teach it to married couples and to those preparing for marriage, and to help them to live it by their pastoral care, counsel, and administering of the sacraments. Pope Francis constantly reminds the clergy to cultivate the “art of accompaniment,”²² so that they do not merely tell people the way, but rather walk that way with them themselves. Then clergy and laity alike will truly be coworkers of the Lord, helping Him in the most important pastoral work of our times: forming, restoring and healing our families.

Reflexión semanal: Jn. 6

Del D. XVII al D. XXI escuchamos en la Misa a cerca del "Discurso del Pan de Vida". En este hermoso capitulo del Evangelio, Jesús se presenta como el "verdadero y necesario pan" para tener vida eterna. Ya el domingo pasado hicimos una aproximación al respecto, es decir, a la necesidad del "pan" en nuestra vida. La verdad, es que hay "otros panes" en el mundo y muchos de estos se presentan "en apariencia más apetecibles" que el mismo Cristo, y es que el pan que Jesús ofrece esta en relación a hacer la voluntad del Padre...si pensamos un poco en esto, comer el pan de la voluntad de Dios para Jesús implico la muerte en el Gólgota. Sin embargo, quien come este pan no se queda en la muerte, el ejemplo lo tenemos en el mismo Jesús que Resucita, por eso nosotros experimentamos también esa vida sobrenatural cuando le recibimos en su Cuerpo y Sangre (y cuando hacemos la voluntad de Dios): "volvemos a la vida". Pero la presencia de ese pan no solo esta en la Eucaristía, también esta en la Palabra de Dios y en los Sacramentos; otra presencia de Jesús son "los pobres", por eso los gestos de generosidad que tengamos con el prójimo complementan "de lo que hemos participado". Ese pan también se recibe espiritualmente, por eso si circunstancialmente no puedes recibirle, haz esta oración:

Jesús mío yo creo que estas verdaderamente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento. Yo te amo sobre todas las cosas, te deseo en mi Alma. Puesto que no puedo recibirte ahora sacramentalmente, ven por lo menos espiritualmente a mi corazón. Como si ya hubieras venido, yo te abrazo y me uno enteramente a ti. Nunca permitas que me separe de ti. Amen

Moi, je suis le pain de vie. (Jean 6, 41 51)

La lecture tirée du livre 1 Roi 19, 4-8 est une excellente introduction du discours de Jésus sur le << pain de vie >>. Le prophète Elie fuyant l'hostilité de la reine Jézabel, marche toute une journée dans le désert. Elie traverse une crise profonde.

Dieu redonne alors au prophète le soutien spirituel et corporel dont il a besoin <<Lève-toi et mange, car autrement le chemin serait trop long pour toi>>. Même les plus grands, tels que Elie, connaissent la nuit de la foi et s'interrogent sur le sens de leur mission. Mais Dieu ne renonce jamais et apporte toujours soutien et réconfort à ses serviteurs.

En Jésus, il offre à tous un pain qui fait vivre éternellement au-delà des épreuves.
