20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This week we have celebrated August 15th, and for many people it is the middle of the summer, and for our children and youth it is the close time to the end of vacation time. But in the spiritual life of the Church, it was the feast of the Assumption into Heaven of the Blessed Virgin Mary. She who is full of Grace, She who always did God's will, She who is without sin, She who is blessed among women, She who's Blessed fruit of her womb is Jesus, She who is a Mother of our Lord and Savior is celebrated as being taken into Heaven with her body and soul.

As we know, the Risen Christ is in heaven with his glorious body, so we believe that God gave that grace to the Blessed Mother, so that She who did not know sin, did not know corruption of her body either.

In the belief of the Church, She is the third person to experience it, after Prophet Elijah and Jesus. Elijah was taken up to heaven on the chariot of fire and did not experience the corruption of death. Jesus by rising from the dead lives now with his glorious body, and so the Blessed Mother was given that privilege.

For ourselves we too expect that gift of incorruptibility after the resurrection on the last day, but until then we have to wait in the corruption of the grave when our bodies are turned into ashes after death. What we want to consider is, that there are many Saints who's bodies are incorrupt, preserving themselves not by human efforts, but by the grace of God. So it is with the body of the Blessed Mother who's tomb does not exist, who's relics either.

So if the bodies of Saints lie in the tombs corrupted or not, waiting for the resurrection on the Last Day, so the Blessed Mother has her glorious body already in heaven. For the rest of us it's a promise to come true according to what Jesus revealed to us.

In the recent Sunday's Gospel readings, Jesus is teaching us about the bread of life that will make us live forever in heaven. It is the gift of eternal life promised to those who believe in Him. Jesus revealed it to us in his death and resurrection, reassuring us in our struggles to comprehend and accept the darkness of death and grave.

With Jesus, death is only a gate of heaven and Jesus invites us to imitate Him in good life so that we would follow Him as well in good death. With Jesus we have nothing to lose and everything to win as He promises us eternal life with God.

What we believe to possess in the future, we believe the Blessed Mother possesses it already. We want to repeat with the disciples, Lord - give us this bread that we may never be hungry again, give us this bread that we may live forever. Amen.

Keep enjoying this great summer and be filled with confidence and love of God.
God bless everyone always !!!

Fr. Stan

medically necessary hysterectomy that will have an unintended side effect of rendering her unable to have more children. However, she may not have the procedure for the purpose of preventing her from having more children.¹³ It is also permissible for a couple to use natural family planning (NFP) to space the births of their children, as long as this is for a just, and not a selfish, reason. In NFP couples observe natural periods of fertility and abstain from sexual intercourse during those times. Contraception and natural family planning are essentially different since in the former the couple interferes with what nature intends, while in the latter the couple makes use of an option that nature provides.¹⁴

In our diocese the Gianna Center for Women's Health and Fertility provides medical assistance, information and training to women in all these areas in accord with the teaching of Humanae Vitae, honoring the dignity and sanctity of human life.¹⁵ This health care center is committed to delivering high-quality, scientifically based, and ethically sound healthcare for all women, including preventive and specialized obstetrical and gynecologic care. It offers women a natural, restorative and scientifically based approach to improving their overall health while addressing their fertility issues. Couples having difficulty conceiving a child need not resort to methods like in vitro fertilization, which the Church's moral teaching prohibits. The Gianna Center can assist couples who wish to conceive in methods which are natural, holistic, and healthy for both mother and child, and which are also morally acceptable.

III. Pope Blessed Paul VI: A Prophet for Our Times

Pope Paul asserts that the use of contraception in society will: (1) Lead to an increase of infidelity in relationships. (2) Lead to a general weakening of morals throughout society. (3) Lead men to lose respect for women. (4) Lead public authorities to force contraception upon people for the public good. Additionally, the Holy Father adds the danger that people will come to think that they, and not God, have complete dominion over their own bodies, and may therefore use or alter them at will.

These prophecies were roundly mocked and were considered extreme and even fantastic in the Pope's day. However, the "contraceptive mentality" that Pope St. John Paul spoke of¹⁶ has resulted in precisely the opposite: an increase of infidelity; a shocking weakening of morals in society; greater problems in male and female relationships and a loss of mutual respect; government interference through the "contraceptive mandate" in healthcare, and "contraceptive imperialism"¹⁷, where wealthy countries force poor countries to institute abortion and contraception programs as a requirement for foreign aid.

There has been a great increase in divorce, children born outside of marriage, abuse of children, the redefinition of marriage, and now transgender ideology. What was promised has not brought the results intended, but rather the direct opposite. It has had catastrophic consequences for individuals and families. The promises and optimism of 1968 have only proved the Pope of that year to have been truly a prophet.

Pope Paul explains that the Church has a duty to preach the whole Moral Law: both the Natural Law and the Law of the Gospel. In another important sentence of the document, he states: "Since the Church did not make either of these laws, she cannot change them. She can only be their guardian and interpreter; thus, it would not be right for her to declare as morally permissible that which is truly not so."¹⁸

Pope Paul concludes his letter by giving "pastoral directives" to various members of society who will have the greatest responsibility in carrying out God's plan: he warns public authorities that they must safeguard morals and the family; he warns scientists, doctors and nurses to use their abilities in favor of life and not against it; he begs spouses to live their marriages as God intended; he stresses with priests that it is their solemn duty to teach the truth about marriage for the salvation of souls; and he tells bishops that promoting this teaching is their greatest work at the present time.

IV. Pope Saint John Paul II & Pope Francis

The teaching of Pope Blessed Paul VI in Humanae Vitae stands in agreement with that of his predecessors throughout the ages, as well as his successors, especially Pope Saint John Paul II and Pope Francis. Throughout his pontificate Pope John Paul preached the “Gospel of Life” and became Humanae Vitae’s staunchest defender. Through his talks on the “Theology of the Body”, and his encyclicals and apostolic exhortations like Veritatis Splendor, Evangelium Vitae, and Familiaris Consortio, Pope Saint John Paul II to the day of his death continued to preach and teach the truth of Humanae Vitae, and its necessity for happy, healthy and holy families.

Pope Francis will canonize Pope Blessed Paul VI on October 14, 2018. Pope Francis frequently quotes Pope Paul and references his Humanae Vitae teaching. The Holy Father has identified a “social and spiritual crisis” so severe that “never before has proclaiming the Gospel on the Family ... been more urgent and necessary.”¹⁹ The Pope has said: “The defense of the environment and the fight against exclusion demand that we recognize a moral law written into human nature itself, one which includes the natural difference between man and woman, and absolute respect for life in all its stages and dimensions.”²⁰

In 2015, at a meeting with families in Manila, Pope Francis said: “I think of Blessed Paul VI. At a time when the problem of population growth was being raised, he had the courage to defend openness to life in families. He ... looked at the peoples of the earth and he saw this threat of families being destroyed for lack of children. Paul VI was courageous; he was a good pastor and he warned his flock of the wolves who were coming ... Our world needs good and strong families to overcome these threats! ... Every threat to the family is a threat to society itself. The future of humanity, as Saint John Paul II often said, passes through the family ... Be sanctuaries of respect for life, proclaiming the sacredness of every human life from conception to natural death.”²¹

V. Humanae Vitae: A Document of the Past, A Solution for the Present, A Path for the Future

Bishop Barres sees this anniversary of Humanae Vitae as a God-given opportunity to teach something about the Catholic Faith that is absolutely crucial to marriages, families, and our lives as Catholics. Understanding the teaching of Humanae Vitae, believing it, and living it, is one of the first and most important answers to the crisis of our time. The Bishop believes that the future Pope Saint Paul VI wrote Humanae Vitae more for our times than even for his own. Today, it can become the first step in repairing the injury between men and women, husbands and wives, parents and children, the family and society.

He encourages all the faithful of the diocese to begin again by examining this teaching and then applying it to their lives, promising the help of the bishops and priests of the diocese in answering questions, providing guidance, and through the grace of the sacraments, especially Confession and the Holy Eucharist.

Bishop Barres thanks the priests of the diocese for their dedication to serving God and His people in the vineyard of the Lord. In this fiftieth anniversary year, he encourages all his priests to read again the Encyclical Letter of Pope Paul VI, and to use this pastoral letter as a tool. He asks priests to help their parishioners come to see the truth and beauty of the Holy Father’s teaching. He asks them to preach it from the pulpit, to teach it to married couples and to those preparing for marriage, and to help them to live it by their pastoral care, counsel, and administering of the sacraments. Pope Francis constantly reminds the clergy to cultivate the “art of accompaniment,”²² so that they do not merely tell people the way, but rather walk that way with them themselves. Then clergy and laity alike will truly be coworkers of the Lord, helping Him in the most important pastoral work of our times: forming, restoring and healing our families.

Romero (1917) quien cumpliría 101 años de edad si viviera en esta tierra, pues la certeza que vive en el cielo nos lo corroborara la Santa Sede en Octubre 14 cuando sea canonizado. Como una nota curiosa, en San Salvador, se ha motivado a la gente a adquirir "la planta de romero" (esa misma que usamos en los guisos), a manera de un llamado para que todo admirador de Romero se convierta en un "Romerito" en su fe, su "sentir con la Iglesia" y el amor preferencial por los pobres. 'San Romero de América, ruega por nosotros'

En la segunda parte de esta Nota quisiera hacer una atenta invitación a todo hermano (a) que desee crecer en su la Fe para que viva el Cursillo de Cristiandad que tendrá lugar:

CURSILLO PARA HOMBRES: Octubre 25 al 28, 2018.

CURSILLO PARA MUJERES: Noviembre 8 al 11, 2018.

Moi, je suis le pain de vie. (Jean 6, 41 51)

La lecture tirée du livre 1 Roi 19, 4-8 est une excellente introduction du discours de Jésus sur le << pain de vie >>. Le prophète Elie fuyant l'hostilité de la reine Jézabel, marche toute une journée dans le désert. Elie traverse une crise profonde. Dieu redonne alors au prophète le soutien spirituel et corporel dont il a besoin << Lève-toi et mange, car autrement le chemin serait trop long pour toi >>. Même les plus grands, tels que Elie, connaissent la nuit de la foi et s'interrogent sur le sens de leur mission. Mais Dieu ne renonce jamais et apporte toujours soutien et réconfort à ses serviteurs. En Jésus, il offre à tous un pain qui fait vivre éternellement au-delà des épreuves.

“Si quelqu’un mange de ce pain, il vivra éternellement” (Jn 6, 51-58)

Frères et sœurs bien-aimés ;

Pour participer à un banquet, il faut une invitation. Toute notre vie de foi commence par une invitation à ne pas vivre comme des fous, mais comme des sages. Jésus nous invite, et cela est déconcertant, à manger le maître du repas. Celui qui mange ma chair demeure en moi, il a la vie éternelle, il vivra par moi c'est déroutant à l'extrême l'Evangile utilise un langage image difficile à comprendre, car il parle d'une réalité bouleversante. Que signifie manger la chair et boire le sang du fils de l'homme ? Comment cela peut-il nous faire vivre éternellement ? Le verbe manger revient 8 (huit) fois dans l'extrait de l'évangile.

Jésus nous invite à être avec Lui, à devenir tout ce qu'il est. Le corps désigne la personne tout entière, son humanité dans toute sa fragilité. Jésus nous parle de donner son sang à boire, il parle de la vie qui circule et qui fait vivre l'être humain.

Jésus nous parle du don de Dieu, tout vient de lui, ce que nous avons ce que nous sommes. Reconnaître cela est sagesse. La sagesse elle-même a dressé la table. Quittons notre folie allons manger, nous sommes des invités de Dieu.

Père Ingrid Antoine
