Second Sunday of Lent

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Lent is well started, and it is always amazing to me, how Church in her wisdom on 2nd Sunday of Lent gives us the Gospel of transfiguration of Jesus before his disciples. The message is clear, that the purpose of Lent is to bring us to the encounter with God. The purpose of Lent is to bring us to individual transfiguration before God. Christ will transform us if we let him guide us, if we listen to his voice and follow him, if we accept his invitation to his friendship. He will transform not only our looks, but above all our hearts. He will transform our lives if we let him take us on the journey of Lent.

Lent, it is a path to transfiguration after meaningful meeting and experience with God, with Christ, with the Prophets, with the Saints. Ultimately one finds oneself, the way that God meant us to be: - this is my beloved son, - this is my beloved daughter in whom I am well pleased, says the Lord. This is the goal of Lent, and of Christian life, this is the best that we can be, this is - the best version of ourselves - as Matthew Kelly would say.

This is the promise of the Gospel, to arrive at the Father's house in heaven. So letting oneself be transformed, is to let oneself to taste the things of heaven. As the disciples said to Jesus: - let us make three tents here and stay, it is so good to be here - so it is wonderful to make that experience of transfiguration - of experience of God, that leads us to transformation of our lives.

So the purpose of Lent is totally positive, even if it looks like it was negative and penitential. There is a purpose in conversion, it refers to abandoning our sinful inclinations, confessing our sins and becoming free for Christ. So, that purification process is the first, accomplished by admitting to our brokenness and need for transformation, for improvement, for conversion. Penance, is the good way of learning of our brokenness. Who of us don't need purification ???, who doesn't need conversion ???, who doesn't need transformation ??

We all want to experience Christ's transfiguration, but to get there we may be invited to go to the desert as Jesus was 40 days in the desert - 40 days of Lent, to be tempted, to be exposed for weakness that we have, weakness that we need to deal with. Repent and believe in the Gospel !!! Take this 40 days with prayer, fasting and almsgiving, and surely the Lord will transform you, and if we be faithful to it Christ will be transfigured before us giving us the glimpse of glory, that will inspire us for the time to come and motivate us in our Christian lives. Come Lord Jesus !!!

Let's take this invitation to make this Lent best ever, by implying ourselves in stepping with Jesus into the desert of our lives, and opening ourselves to the possibility of an encounter with God. -Then the Angels ministered to Him, - as the Gospel says. Let us look into the calendar of events for this Lent in the bulletin, and let us participate in them, giving the Lord the opportunity to Transfiguration before us, and opportunity to transform our lives for better.

God bless everyone !!!

Fr. Stan

Taizé Prayer

Imagine the scene. Silence, Church lights dim. In front of the Altar, the Image of the Crucifixions, surrounded with candles flickering.

In our pews, you and me and many more parishioners hold their own candles, long and slim, then light each others one by one until the church is alive with even more candlelight. We chant together, if you want, over and over as we rise and carry our candles toward the altar, adding our own flames to the ones already burning.

We then sit in silence just beholding this magical scene: hundreds of small flames on and around the altar like a sunburst in shadowy darkness. There is no other light. There is no sound. And nothing moves, except the flames, which dance.

This is a Taizé Prayer Service.

Dear Fr. Stan,

The Life Center of Long Island most sincerely thanks you and the parish community at Saint Anne for your generous participation with our 2017 Baby Bottle Fundraiser. The parish raised over $7,142! We were genuinely touched by the amount of families who sacrificed in helping our preborn children.

We are most appreciative of how accommodating you were in allowing us to conduct this fundraiser at your parish. We realize that you have so many responsibilities at your parish, and yet, you gave so much to support our mission. Thank you for making the time.

Every month, The Life Center receives phone calls from women seeking an abortion. It has been our experience, that when a woman learns the facts about her baby's development and the possible complications to herself resulting from an abortion, the majority of the time she will change her mind and carry her baby to term. Your parish support enables us to help these women and their families in the midst of their crisis.

No campaign can be a success without the help of a dedicated coordinator. We thank Marge Baum for filling that role. It is a pleasure to work with her. Please be assured of our prayers for you and your parish.

SEGUNDO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

La 1a Lectura de este domingo nos habla de Abraham, “nuestro padre en la fe” (del pueblo de Israel y de la Iglesia), le fue reputada como justicia esa fe aun antes de conocer enteramente la soberanía de Dios. Junto a este personaje del AT, también tenemos a Isaac, su hijo, que viene a ser figura de Cristo que entregará la vida por la humanidad, “el muchacho pregunto, donde está la victima para el sacrificio, el padre contesto, 'Dios proveerá' (Gen 22,8). La 2a Lectura nos aclara el escenario, “el que no escatimo a su propio Hijo, sino que lo entrego por nosotros” (Rm 8,32). El Evangelio nos relata la Transfiguración del Señor en el Monte Tabor, “aparecieron Moisés y Elías que conversaban con Jesús” (Mc 9,4). También hubo testigos (Pedro, Santiago y Juan). Y se dio una Teofanía, “este es mi Hijo amado, escúchenlo”. Este día se repite la escena, hay un Monte (el Templo), una víctima incruenta (Cristo en la eucaristía), unos Testigos (la Asamblea), y una Teofanía (la Homilía); alguno podrá decir, “que bien se está aquí, hagamos tres tiendas” (Mc 9,5), pero eso no es lo que Dios quiere, igual que en el Evangelio del I Cuaresma, el seguimiento de Jesús “no tiene nada que ver con “vida monjil” apartados de todo y de todos, NO, la invitación de Jesús que volvió del desierto y hoy baja del Monte son solo momentos de silencio para escuchar la voz de Dios y acompañar a Cristo en su Misión, El ya dio la vida por nosotros, ahora somos nosotros que en su Nombre debemos dar testimonio. Una última cosa, Jesús nos invita a reconocer su rostro transfigurado en los pobres, en el Domingo, más que ayuno y abstén encía, la acción de gracias y la caridad es lo que debe matizar nuestra jornada. Continuemos nuestro itinerario hacia la Pascua. P. Victor

Friday March 23, 2018. 6:30pm. Lower Church.

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK :

Okay, that's when and where. Bet you can tell what this invitation is for, our Annual Lenten Soup Supper is almost here, We will be enjoying meatless soup and bread (maybe a cookie or two), the Friday before Holy Week begins.

As usual we'll have a few soups for you to try and enjoy. It's a nice time to soup up before all the events and celebration of Holy Week. Here's the plan:

1. Go to the 5:30 p.m. Friday Mass
2. Celebrate the Stations of the Cross at 6pm
3. Bring your appetite and enjoy!

Soup is my absolutely favorite meal. I like just about any kind of soup. There is something warm and comforting about a nice cup of soup. Please plan to join us. As is our custom, we will gladly accept whatever donation you would like to give (most folks give what they would have spent on their usual Lenten Friday meal), we will give that donation to Outreach for their needs. Speaking of Outreach, we also are asking that EVERYBODY please bring one (or more) personal care items to donate. Soap, shave cream, conditioner, feminine products, deodorants all the things most of us take for granted but are costly to those seeking Outreach services. Speaking of food, did you ever have a tuna burger? For the life of me I cannot believe that everybody isn't eating these during Lent. Growing up in our family, tuna burgers meant Lent!

Now that I'm grown, I've literally never met another person who had these. I'm giving you my recipe to encourage you to make them.

1. 2 cans of tuna, drained
2. Mayo (as much as you would as if your were making tuna salad)
3. 2 hard boiled eggs, sliced into large pieces
4. 3-4 slices of American cheese, torn by hand into irregular pieces
5. 8 sweet gherkin pickles sliced into ¼ inch pieces
6. Seeded hamburger rolls

Put the rolls aside, mix all the other ingredients into a salad. Take a roll, fill it with the mixture. Wrap the burger in a piece of aluminum foil. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes. Best eaten warm. But makes a killer breakfast too!

Dieu seul peut nous donner le bonheur

L'humanité d'aujourd'hui as pire a un monde qui réponde mieux que l'actuel a son exigence de justice et a son insatiable soif de bonheur. Hélas, rares sont ceux et celles qui acceptent de confronter leurs rêves ou leurs désirs aux lentes maturations que requiert une vraie conversion des mentalités et des comportements. Seul l'homme repentant est apte a accueillir le

Messie et a faire sienne la patience de Dieu. C'est une tentation continuelle aujourd'hui comme aux premiers temps de l'église, de penser que Dieu est inerte et prend bien du retard a accomplir sa promesse de faire surgir un monde nouveau ou habitera la justice. Mais n'est-ce pas d'abord notre impatience qui nous fait juger ainsi? Parce qu'il n'a pas épargné son Fils unique, Abraham le retrouvait. mais Dieu n'a réclaté de lui que cette totale obéissance intérieure. Notre amour se mesure au don que nous faisons de nous-mêmes.

Avant d'être défigure par la haine des hommes, Jésus se dresse transfigure a la fois par l'amour du Pare pour son fils Bien-aimé et celui qu'il porte a Dieu et aux hommes. Dieu seul peut nous donner le bonheur; il est inutile de le chercher ailleurs ou par la richesse, le plaisir, et le pouvoir..
