Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Last Saturday we had celebrated the Dominican Republic's feast Of Our Lady of Altigracia. It was nicely prepared and set up. I want to thank all who helped to prepare for the reception. It is really enriching to hear of everyone's spirituality, culture, traditions and variety of foods, hearing songs, seeing dances etc. It helps us to know and appreciate each other.

Recently as we celebrated Martin Luther King Day, I heard it reported that he said: - "People hate each other because they don't know each other, and they don't know each other because they don't listen to each other, and they don't listen to each other because they don't spent time together," So in these celebrations, we share all the best of what we have with each other, and that helps us to realize how special and lovable each one is.

Once more I thank all those involved in the organization of the excellent food, Mass celebration and music. Lord, I thank You for blessing us with so many expressions of different cultures and nationalities. We continue to pray for a positive solution to all political immigration issues that need to be addressed and solutions found for all immigrants. And so, we got back to what MLK said, people don't know each other because they don't listen to each other, - so how can they do anything for each other ??? We need to know each other in order to love one another. This is why the social aspect of the practice of our faith is so important. It helps us to know each other and truly care for each other. Together we advance in holiness of life, in becoming Christ like.

For some who desire to be more challenged in their spirituality, this past Monday we started the Neocatechumal encounters that offer some radical commitment to the Gospel. Should anyone be unhappy about their life and about this world, the Neocatechumal Way offers another answer, another way to find peace and happiness in ones own life following Christ. If You are happy already about your life, but you know someone who didn't find yet the answers to their life problems and unhappiness, please tell them about this new spirituality group in our parish. Our commitment to Christian life should give us peace and joy. If we don't have it yet, we should ask our self what is wrong here, we should question our ways and search for the answers. Jesus still is working in our times, only we need to answer his call and follow him.

Last Sunday we heard what great impression Jesus made on the disciples. After they were called, they left everything behind and followed Him. In the Gospel of this Sunday, Jesus continues to teach with authority, the confirmation of his words finds resemblance in his deeds. These are physical and spiritual acts of healing, miracles, acts of mercy, kindness, compassion. His fame as the Gospel says was spreading everywhere, until the day of today. Jesus continues to be the answer to all human longings. It is the world that changes, Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever. No matter how modern we may think we are, we all need Jesus to save us. Our modernity often is a reason why we may feel more separated from the Lord. Our sophistication regarding technology does not help us to stay humble before God. In our self absorption we fail to see our need for God, and this is why we fail to perceive God's help and miracles. Jesus' power works in mysterious and miraculous ways even today, but we need to open our heart and mind and let him in into our lives.

Each prayer group that we find in our parish, promotes a spirituality that helps individuals to open the windows of our minds and hearts to the reality of Christ. I strongly recommend, that everyone should have a preferred group, or a spirituality that would help them to get closer to Christ. What is your preferred way to pray ??? Who is your preferred Saint that would be your example of understanding or of following Christ ???

Let's give Jesus a chance to continue to work miracles for us by being open to Him, because the authority of his word never expires, and since He is alive, so He can continue to walk with us on our journey of faith.

God bless everyone !!!
Fr. Stan

The Feast of Saint Blaise

Saint Blaise was the bishop of Sebaste in Armenia during the fourth century. Very little is known about his life. According to various accounts he was a physician before becoming a bishop. We acknowledge him because, it was told that throughout the entire Church in the Middle Ages he was reputed to have miraculously cured a little boy who nearly died because of a fishbone in his throat. From the eighth century he has been invoked on behalf of the sick, especially those afflicted with illnesses of the throat. This year the feast falls on Saturday, February 3, 2018. We here at St. Anne's will offer the opportunity to have your throats blessed only once that day at the Saturday morning Mass at 9:00 a.m. Please take advantage of this blessing!

Curación en la sinagoga de Cafarnaúm (Mt 1, 21-28)

Jesús llega a Cafarnaúm para ejercer su actividad docente de enseñar en la sinagoga. Esta actividad tenía dos partes: una oración, otra lectura y exposición de la Escritura (la ley y los profetas). La exposición era mas bien libre, pero el “método” no, debía senirse a la Escritura o a la tradición rabínica. Jesús lo hace desde la tribuna dispuesta para esto, pero sorprende por que ensena con “autoridad” (y no como los escribas), método nuevo y doctrina nueva. No hace alusión a las sentencias rabínicas, el habla la palabra de Dios atribuyéndose una supuesta divinidad que incomoda y sorprende a todos. En el lugar hay “un endemoniado” que increpa a Cristo como “Jesus Nazareno”. El manda callar a los demonios, y los hace salir, realiza un milagro, esto ultimo para rubricar aquel método y doctrina novedosos y “su autoridad”. Todo esto tiene una clara finalidad “apologética” y “escatológica”. Jesus tiene poder sobre el reino del mal e inicia una “época escatológica” que es también “mesiánica” , y que ya esta en marcha.

Por todo lo anterior, debemos considerar que ese Jesús Nazareno esta presente en la Liturgia que hoy celebramos y que no basta reconocerlo, pues también los demonios lo reconocen, mas bien hay que clamarle que no hoy no pase de largo, que se detenga en nuestras vidas, que nos libere de nuestras ataduras, en una palabra que ejerza su Autoridad y señorío sobre el reino del mal que nos circunda y que a veces nos aplasta. El domingo es el día del Señor, el día en que Cristo resucito, el día en que inauguro un Reino nuevo.

Silence! Sors de cet homme.

En guérissant quelques malades physiques ou mentaux, Jésus ne fait pas seulement acte de bonté mais montre qu'il est venu entreprendre un combat gigantesque contre le Mal a l'œuvre dans le monde. L'esprit mauvais qui interpelle Jésus le sait bien: "Es-tu venu pour nous perdre? Nous, c'est-a-dire toute la horde des esprits mauvais auxquels les Anciens attribuaient l'origine des maladies, des infirmités et des cataclysmes. La parole et les actes de Jésus manifestent qu'il est le Messie, le Saint de Dieu et donc que son autorité s'enracine en Dieu. La profondeur de l'esclavage de l'humanité est telle qu'il nous faut un Sauveur.

Jésus est ce Sauveur au milieu de ses frères qui interpelle vivement cet homme mu par le menteur: " Silence, sors de cet homme." Jésus fait la lumière en cet homme, il fait advenir en lui la liberté et l'amour. A la suite de Jésus, nous prions pour la libération du monde. Nous voulons tenir dans la prière pour que le règne de l'amour de Dieu se manifeste encore.
