Fourth Sunday of Lent

Dear Sisters and Brothers

We passed the middle of Lent, today it is the 4th Sunday and on the 6th Sunday it will be Palm Sunday and Holy Week. With the winter and spring weather mingling together, we are reminded that, it is in God's hands that the change of seasons lies. So it is in God's grace, that the fruitfulness of Lent will be revealed in us, as much as we collaborate with it.

Last Sunday we could find God in the quiet of song and veneration of Christ crucified, in such walk with Him in the Friday's Way of the Cross, we could work with Him in the various services offered to the needy or to our parish.

On Monday we could sense Jesus presence in the midst of our youth retreat for the Confirmation class, as Tony Bellizzi brought the Gospel message to our youth connecting with their world in very practical ways. Tony will be directing our Youth Ministry beginning from June 1st, and we hope to offer more opportunities for our youth to grow in their faith, before and after Confirmation.

Let's humbly discern, where we can grow in our faith and in our commitment to Christ and to the Church. It all goes together; faith and services, theory and practice.

Coming Saturday on the 17th of March we will have our day of prayer and reflection at the Seminary on the Eucharist and the service at the liturgy. Hopefully it will inspire all of us who assists with the liturgy, to be more prayerful and less distracting, so that everyone would perceive and receive more of Jesus. This week and the next we have the discussions on the book we all read - "Perfectly Yourself" - how it impacted each one of us. On Friday, March 16th, there is the All Night Adoration offered in our Chapel from 9pm to 5am, coordinated by Greg Florentino. Then next Sunday March 18th, it is the Healthy Sunday served to us by Buddhist Tzu Chi Foundation; with doctors, dentists, physical therapist, free haircut, and more. Stop by to share in what is offered to us. On that afternoon of the March 18th, Sunday, at 3:00 p.m., we will show a movie about St Philip Neri - a happy saint, with subtitles. So let us participate in any of the events, and let us draw inspiration and strength from what we receive and than, what we give in return in service. If in the Holy Week and Easter, Jesus gives himself to us, so in the Lent we should be finding new ways to give ourselves to Jesus.

As we read in the readings for this Sunday, God causes even pagans to fulfill his plans. So through pagans he purified his people in exile, and then released them back from slavery to rebuild the temple in Jerusalem. As St. Paul says: - God is rich in mercy, and because his great love for us, he loved us even when we were sinners, He brought us back to life through Christ Jesus. By his grace we have been saved. Let us than nourish ourselves at the table of Christ with the fruits of his love.

As Jesus said to Nicodemus: - God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him, might have eternal life - How powerful is that declaration made by Christ himself. How much have we experienced that love??? How much have we been touched by that love ??? Or, how untouched and indifferent we have been towards that love ??? Jesus keeps coming to us, asking us for a gesture of friendship and love, for an act of kindness and generosity, for an act of sacrifice and mercy. -God is rich in mercy - as Saint Paul experienced, and now he invites us into the range of it, to be saved by God's grace.

God bless everyone !!!

When items are available at our outreach, we give our clients gently used clothing, towels and bedding. Any donated clothing or bedding should be washed or dry cleaned for sanitary reasons. Our clients are very grateful for these extra items. All donations are truly appreciated by those who cannot afford to purchase them on their own.

FROM THE DESK OF P.VICTOR

CUARTO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

From de Corner of F. Victor E.

“Alégrate, Jerusalén (Laetare, Jerusalén) ...es el versículo de la introducción de la Misa (Is 66). La liturgia viene marcada por la Alegría ante la proximidad de la Pascua, la Iglesia usa el color Rosado (similar al tercero de Adviento). Este Domingo nos invita a ver más allá de la triste realidad del pecado y centrarnos en la Misericordia divina. Las posibilidades de las lecturas son variadas, las propias del ciclo B, o las alternativas del ciclo A para el RICA. Una breve reflexión de los Evangelios a continuación. En la primera opción, Jn 3, 14-21, sobresale el v. 16: “Porque tanto amo Dios al mundo que le entrego a su Hijo único, para que todo el crea en el no perezca...”, gozo inmenso que hay que celebrar siempre. La segunda opción es Jn 9, 1-41. Aquí resalta la figura de un ciego de nacimiento...ciegos lo hemos sido todos alguna vez, o pecadores somos siempre, pero tanto para los ciegos como para los pecadores existe la posibilidad de la curación, sanación que es más espiritual que física, la segunda en el Evangelio solo tuvo sentido para despertar la fe, nosotros que “ya tenemos la fe”, necesitamos de la sanación interior que nos lleve a sobre llevar las dificultades de la vida y afrontar muchas veces las consecuencias de nuestros pecados. Un símil con la piscina del Evangelio, lo son los sacramentos del Bautismo y la Reconciliación, uno “hace cristianos”, el otro “restituye a los cristianos”, ambos motivos también de alegría a la cual hace referencia la Liturgia de hoy. Buen Domingo a todos.

On Saturday March 3, 2018 the youth and youth leaders of St. Anne's Haitian Youth Ministry, attended youth rally by the Diocese of Rockville Center. This event took place at St. Elizabeth of Hungary Church in Melville and was attended by over 100 youth from around the diocese. We were treated to inspiring messages and testimonials from the guest speakers (Dom Quaglia, Jr., Marianist Brother Peter Francis, Sister Bethany of the Sisters of Life and Father Innocent Montgomery, a Franciscan Friar). We moved our bodies to the spirit filled music of Sarah Kroger and ended our day with a beautiful mass celebrated by the wonderful Bishop Barres. At the end we were able to get a picture taken with him and he let us know just how happy he was for us to be there. It was an awesome way to end a wonderful day shared by all!

Prière, Jeune et Partage

Il y a trois actes en lesquels la foi se tient, la piété consiste, la vertu se maintient: le jeune, la prière, et la miséricorde. La prière frappe à la porte, le jeune obtient, la miséricorde reçoit. Prière, miséricorde, jeune, les trois ne font qu'un et se donnent mutuellement la vie. En effet, le jeune est l'âme de la prière, la miséricorde est la vie du jeune. Que personne ne les divise: les trois ne peuvent se séparer. Celui qui en pratique seulement un ou deux, celui-la n'a rien. Donc, celui qui prie doit jeuner, celui qui jeune doit avoir pitié; qu'il écoute l'homme qui demande, et qui en demandant souhaite être écouté; il se fait entendre de Dieu, celui qui ne refuse pas d'entendre lorsqu'on le supplie. Celui qui pratique le jeune doit comprendre le jeune: il doit sympathiser avec l'homme qui a faim s'il veut que Dieu sympathise avec sa propre faim. Il doit faire miséricorde celui qui espère obtenir miséricorde. Celui qui qu'on lui donne doit donner.
