Third Sunday of Lent

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

It is third week of Lent, we are entering into month of March, and right on the end of it we will celebrate the Holy Week and Easter. Both of those seasons are so close to each other and they are inseparable : Lent / Easter, Easter / Lent. Those seasons keep mixing up in the daily life. We live moments of happiness as if the Easter already now could be eternal, and than we get hit by events of Holy Week - the Passion and death again. As I write this article, just before starting it, I glazed at the news and I saw two articles, one about the negligence of the Police Department and FBI in regard to the Florida school shooting, talking about the families terribly hurt and destroyed in this explosive evil, that build up over time as the shooter was growing in his destructiveness unchecked. The other article was much closer to us, as it talked about the three killers of Kayla Cuevas and Nisa Mickens laughing and joking in court as the prosecutors were waiting to hear from the US Justice Department about whether they can pursue the death penalty, while the family members of one of the killed girls were watching. When does the Resurrection come after death ??? How long it takes to cross the line of loss and pain to arrive at the Resurrection and Easter- joy and happiness again ???

For those families who lost their loved ones so tragically and senselessly, it will be a life long experience. Can one ever accept what happened as normal ??? To bad, that in real life it can't be faster as it is in yearly calendar, when Easter comes regularly, and it seems so fast. But as we observed, there are too many Good Fridays happening in the course of one year, too many tragedies and senseless acts of evil affecting many people, affecting our lives. What would be life without Easter ??? What would be life without Resurrection ??? What is it like for those families affected directly by those tragedies to be grieving daily??? and for how long ??? When will the Easter come for them ???

As I looked on the readings of this Sunday, it is striking the beauty and wisdom of them all. Jesus is the Incarcerated Wisdom, talking in parables about the temple of his body to be ready to be raised on the third day. Jesus being preoccupied with the temple and true worship of God shows anger and irritation towards the system and culture created around the place of worship. He shows the connection between the worship and the sanctity of the temple of our body. True worship is necessary to be able to preserve the truth of the faith, that is God's revelation, the wisdom of faith. This is why the temple of Christ's Body sanctifies the temples of our bodies and the temples of our churches and tabernacles.

The wisdom of our revealed faith is given to us in the 10 Commandments given to Moses. This is the bill of human rights, that Jesus summed up in saying - love the Lord your God, and your neighbor as yourself - this is the most just thing to do in life. Is it not very simple ??? Yet the practice shows how far away we get sometimes from this truth.

The best description of it we find in Saint Paul in Second Reading today as he says:
- "Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength." -

Who, but Saint Paul could make such an explanation of that parable of the temple of the body and of the wisdom of life. Lord continue to teach us about the temples of our bodies and about the wisdom of our faith, and help us to embody into our lives what we learn from you.

Please look into this months calendar for the opportunities to experience the Lord and his wisdom: in worship, prayers, presentations, cultural events, it all builds up the temples of our bodies as the Spirit of God dwells in them.

God bless everyone !!!

From the Deacon's Bench

by Deacon John

So I got this navigation gadget thing in my car. I can upload an address and the gizmo can tell me how to get there. Very neat, super convenient. A little bit annoying. So I put the address into the gizmo, and right away it starts to tell me what to do. "Turn here, go there, you missed the turn, re calculating, at the next opportunity turn around"!

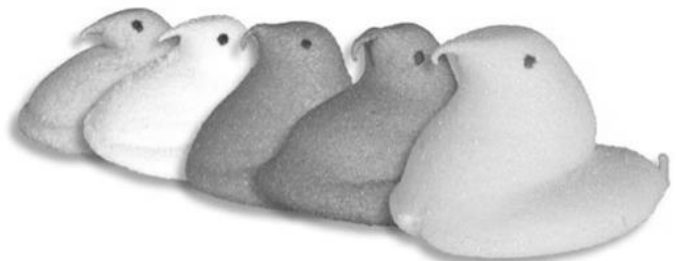

I began thinking, that this is supposed to be helping me? Here I am doing my best, and there is someone, something, showing me, again, that I'm on the wrong road. I'm not heading to where I need to go. And if I continue on the road I'm on I'm sure to get lost.

Speaking of getting lost, how is Lent going for you? Do you realize that this time next month, less than 30 days from now Easter will have come. It's only 27 more Peep shopping days till Easter! Seriously, how is your Lent 2018 going?

We listened on Ash Wednesday about the need to fast in ways that go beyond foods. That we need to free those bound up, to be careful not to do religious things for others to see. To pray in secret. To give in secret. Prayer, giving alms, setting those we hold bound by not forgiving, free because we do forgive them. These are some of the ways we are called by Jesus and the Church to celebrate Lent.

God is sort of like that car gizmo I have. See, I KNOW where I'm going and how I'm getting there. No one can tell me. I know that I need to pray and go to Mass and give more to Outreach. I know, so I can turn the navigation thing off and just set my spiritual life on cruise control and coast into Easter. But. If I'm willing to put the gizmo on, and let it direct me I will get there on time by the route that is most profitable, and safely. No mad U Turns when I realize I messed up again. Won't have to stop for directions (I wouldn't anyway!). Instead, if I just listen, and do as I'm told, I'll arrive. Funny how that works.

See you at Mass.

FROM THE DESK OF P.VICTOR

TERCER DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

“Señor, tu tienes palabras de vida eterna” es la respuesta al Salmo (18) este domingo; el Decálogo (Ex 20, Dt 5) pretende ser eso para nosotros, también es una “luz en nuestro itinerario cuaresmal”.

Sin embargo, Jesús nos da una nueva norma de vida fundamentada en un unico Mandamiento:

“Amaras a Dios y tu Prójimo como a ti mismo” (Mt 22), y S. Agustín nos provee una clave: “Ama y haz lo que quieras”, si se ama aun el rechazo y corrección estarán bien si se hacen por amor. Los primeros tres mandamientos refieren a lo Divino y del cuarto mandamiento en adelante a “lo humano”, a Dios no se le puede amar de otra manera sino en el Prójimo, un culto de Templo viene a ser un “culto a medias”.

En el Evangelio, Jesús corrige en el entorno del Templo, “un celo por lo Divino lo lleva a poner en evidencia” las ofrendas de la gente. Como esta nuestra relación con Dios y con el Prójimo???

Los Mandamientos son esa Sabiduría que es “necedad para los sabios de este mundo” (1 Cor 1). Mas aun, Cristo crucificado es “locura y necedad”, igual es que en algún momento nos toque llevar las cruces de otros o quizá las consecuencias de sus mismos pecados. Estamos dispuestos a ello esta Cuaresma???

El tiempo apremia, la Cuaresma avanza, atenta debe ser nuestra actitud, la Iglesia seguirá proveyéndonos insumos para que se de en nosotros la Conversión. El objetivo debe ser llegar a la Pascua con el corazón renovado y con nuevos brillos. Que estamos haciendo individual o colectivamente con este propósito???

Imagine the scene. Silence, Church lights dim. In front of the Altar, the Image of the Crucifixions, surrounded with candles flickering. In our pews, you and me and many more parishioners hold their own candles, long and slim, then light each others one by one until the church is alive with even more candlelight. We chant together, if you want, over and over as we rise and carry our candles toward the altar, adding our own flames to the ones already burning. We then sit in silence just beholding this magical scene: hundreds of small flames on and around the altar like a sunburst in shadowy darkness. There is no other light. There is no sound. And nothing moves, except the flames, which dance. This is a Taizé Prayer Service.

Se nourrir de la Parole de Dieu

La lecture et la méditation de la Bible doivent être parties intégrantes de votre prière de chaque jour. Parfois quelques versets suffisent, il n'est pas nécessaire de choisir un texte long. Avant de commencer à lire on peut faire le signe de la croix en disant: "Seigneur, que ta parole inspire mes pensées, mes paroles et change mon cœur. Amen." Lire la parole de Dieu pour l'entendre, s'en pénétrer afin de la prier avec son cœur et continuer de parler avec Dieu. Jésus est la Parole vivante. Seul l'Esprit Saint peut nous aider à la comprendre et à en vivre. Prenez le temps de goûter cette Parole, elle sourira votre âme. En elle, éclate la folie de l'amour dont Dieu aime les hommes. Mais, peut-on prétendre vivre la Parole de Dieu sans être d'abord fidèle à ces commandements?
