31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Last weekend, once more we have heard sad news of an attack on a Synagogue with 11 people losing lives in Pittsburgh. There is no place for violence in our lives. We all resent bullying and mistreatment, not talking about any physical abuse. We need to continue to pray for the victims and their families, that they find strength to bear the pain of their loss and hurt. It's so difficult to find understanding and acceptance to such senseless violence.

Every person desires respect and fair treatment in all places, we desire kindness and love from our family and friends and so we have to give to others this same. In the gospel of this Sunday, Jesus gives us an indication for holiness and happiness in our lives simplifying the whole Bible to two commandments of loving God and our neighbor as ourselves. How important it must be for us, to come to know God's love for us, to be able to respond to it as Jesus asks us through the words of the Old Testament: to love God with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind and with all our strength ? How important it must be for us to make an experience of that love ? How much we must ponder God's Word, how much we need to be close to God to have this total love with all strength of the: body, mind and soul, all for God.

What in life do we love with all our strength, with the power of our body, mind and soul ??? Does love like this exist ??? Or at least what love comes closest to that kind of love ??? Love like this probably exists, but who of us would say that we love God in that profound way of total self gift ??? Or what it means to love God or another person in that way ??? Certainly one needs to ponder this meaning in faith and love in prayer to come to terms with it.

Loving others seems simple, to love them as ourselves with simple reciprocity. If we define our practical life answer to this question, we will answer to our greatest call as a human person. Jesus gave us a clue with his own life and death. Are we ready to imitate Him ??? Here I would like to share with you this prayer, that you may have seen me share in the bulletin, but it's worth remembering. Attributed to Fr. Pedro Arrupe, SJ (1907-1991)

“Nothing is more practical than finding God, than falling in Love in a quite absolute, final way.

What you are in love with, what seizes your imagination, will affect everything.
It will decide what will get you out of bed in the morning, what you do with your evenings, how you spend your weekends, what you read, whom you know, what breaks your heart, and what amazes you with joy and gratitude.
Fall in Love, stay in love, and it will decide everything.”

This week we honored All Saints who tried to embody this prayer, and now we honor them for their efforts and example. We continue to pray for the Souls of our departed family members. You may remember them by enlisting them for the All Souls Novena of Masses taking the envelope from the entrances of the church and writing their names for remembrance in Novena of Masses and in our prayers in the month of November. May the Lord show them his Mercy, and give them the happiness of heaven. And us let's ponder and learn how to love God and one another as ourselves.

God bless everyone always !!!

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas:

El fin de semana pasado, una vez mas, hemos escuchado tristes noticias de ataques a la Sinagoga con 11 personas perdiendo la vidas en Pittsburgh. No hay lugar para la violencia en nuestras vidas. A todos nos molesta la intimidación y el maltrato, no hablamos de ningún abuso físico. Necesitamos continuar orando por las victimas y sus familiares, para que encuentren la fuerza para soportar el dolor de su perdida y su dolor. Es tan dificil encontrar compresión y aceptación ante semejante violencia sin sentido.

Todas las personas desean respeto y trato justo en todos los lugares, deseamos bondad y amor de nuestra familia y amigos, por lo que tenemos que darles a los demás lo mismo. En el evangelio de este Domingo, Jesús nos da una indicación de la santidad y la felicidad en nuestras vidas simplicando toda la Biblia a dos mandamientos de amar a Dios y al prójimo como a nosotros mismos. Que tan importante debe ser para nosotros, conocer el amor de Dios para nosotros, para poder responder a el como Jesús nos pide a través de la palabras del Antiguo Testamento: amar a Dios con todo nuestro corazón, con toda nuestra alma, con Toda nuestra mente y con toda nuestra fuerza. ¿Qué tan importante debe ser para nosotros hacer una experiencia de ese amor? ¿Cuánto debemos reflexionar sobre la Palabra de Dios, cuanto debemos estar cerca de Dios para tener este amor total con toda la fuerza del cuerpo, la mente y el alma, todo para Dios?

¿Qué en la vida amamos con toda nuestra fuerza, con el poder de nuestro cuerpo, mente y alma? ¿El amor como sale? O al menos, ¿Qué amor se acerca mas a ese tipo de amor? Probablemente exista este tipo de amor, pero ¿Quién de nosotros diria que amamos a Dios de esa manera profunda de entrega total? ¿O que significa amar a Dios u otra persona de esa manera? Ciertamente, uno necesita reflexionar sobre este significado en la fe y el amor en la oración para llegar a un acuerdo con el.

Amar a los demás parece simple, amarlos como a nosotros mismos con reciprocidad simple. Si definimos nuestra respuesta de vida practica a esta pregunta, responderemos a nuestro mayor llamado como persona humana. Jesús nos dio una pista con su propia vida y muerte.

¿Estamos listos para imitarlo? Aquí me gustaría compartir con ustedes esta oración, que quizan hayan visto en el boletín anteriormente, vale la pena recordarla una vez mas. Escrita por el Padre Pedro Arrupe, SJ (1907-1991)

NADA ES MAS PRACTICO.

Nada es mas practico

Que encontrar a Dios;

Que amarlo de un modo absoluto, y hasta el final.

Aquello de lo que estés enamorado, y arrebate tu imaginación,

Lo afectara todo.

Determinara lo que te haga levantar por la mañana

Y lo que hagas con tus atardeceres;

Como pases los fines de semana, lo que leas

Y a quien conozcas;

Lo que te rompa el corazón y lo que te llene de asombro

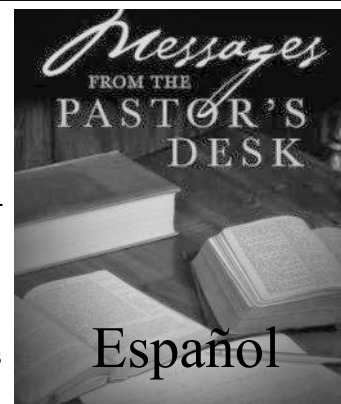

Con alegría y agradecimiento.

Enamórate, permanece enamorado, y eso lo decidirá todo.

Esta semana horamos a todos los Santos que intentaron encarnar esta oración, y ahora los honramos por su esfuerzo y ejemplo. Continuamos orando por las almas de nuestros familiares difuntos. Puede recordarlos escribiendo sus nombres para la Novena que se llevara a cabo en la Misas de recordación de todas las almas difuntas, tomando un sobre a la entradas de la iglesia y escribiendo sus nombres, para ser recordados durante la misa y en nuestra oraciones durante el mes de Noviembre. Que el Señor les muestre su Misericordia y les de la felicidad del cielo. Y reflexionemos y aprendamos a amar a Dios y a los demás como a nosotros mismos.

Dios les bendiga a todos siempre!!!

P. Stan

BRING A TORCH, JEANETTE ISABELLA! – SILENT AFTERNOON OF PRAYER

This French carol is about two female farmhands running to tell the inhabitants of a nearby village that they have found the baby and his mother in a stable. What can its beckoning and hushed quality say to us about greeting the Christ Child with exuberant and contemplative presence to the moment this Christmastide? What noise must we still, lest we awaken Him?

Presenter: Sr. Kathryn Madden, r.c.

Offering: $35 $20 deposit required to hold your reservation

January 18-20, 2019

Spa Retreat for Women "The Gifts of the Visitation" are you looking for that special gift for someone for Christmas well for the ladies here it is. The story of the Visitation of Mary and Elizabeth teaches us an important lesson: when Christ is growing inside of us, we will be led to people, places and situations that we never dreamed of. In the very act of consoling others, we will be consoled. How does your spiritual life influence your journey, bod, mind, and spirit? Presenters: Cenacle Sisters and Team. XXXI-B DOMINGO ORDINARIO

Deuteronomio 6:2-6 Escucha, Israel: El Señor, nuestro Dios, es el único Señor; amaras al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma, con todas tus fuerzas. Graba en tu corazón los mandamientos que hay te he transmitido... esto es para los judíos a manera del Credo para los católicos, una confesión de fe, valga decir que también es nuestro, Jesucristo nos lo entrego cumplido en la Cruz. Hay que enfatizar que este 'Shemá, Israel' (Escucha, Israel) está fundamentado en la Alianza, en el amor de Dios que eligió un pueblo (Israel), y en sentido más amplio un Pueblo Nuevo: la Iglesia. 'Shemá, Israel', busca explicar y aplicar la Alianza con el Dios uno y único, alianza en la cual Dios tiene la iniciativa y responsabilidad.

Hebreos 7:23-28 Ciertamente que un sumo sacerdote como este era el que nos convenía: santo, inocente, inmaculado, separado de los pecadores y elevado por encima de los cielos... uno que se ofrece como víctima propiciatoria. El texto de la segunda lectura tiene una profundidad teológica que cobra sentido en el sacerdocio bautismal de todos los creyentes, y por supuesto en el único sacerdocio "según el rito de Melquisedec", el de Cristo.

Marcos 12:28b-34 "Cuál es el primero de todos los mandamientos?" (...) El primero es: 'Shemá, Israel (...) El segundo es este: Amaras a tu prójimo como a ti mismo. El mandato de Jesús es claro, no se ama a Dios si no se ama al prójimo, en palabras sencillas: Levantamos una mano para alabar a Dios y nos ponemos la otra en el bolsillo para ser generosos con los pobres e indigentes. En el orden de los 10 mandamientos, es curioso, el numero de mandamientos que refieren a Dios son tres, son siete (a partir del 4º), que refieren al prójimo y la relación con el mundo material (bienes, dinero, etc.).

SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH

This November 16th marks the twenty-ninth anniversary of the assassination of six Jesuit priests, their housekeeper and her daughter in the small country of El Salvador. In addition, this year will mark the thirty-eighth of the murders of the four Churchwomen and now Sainted Archbishop Oscar A. Romero, also in El Salvador.

With those anniversaries in mind, a prayer service has been planned to commemorate the lives of these holy people and to remember all those who have, and continue to, dedicate their lives to the struggle for social justice and peace all over our world. This service will be held on Sunday, November 18th at 3:00 p.m. at the Sisters of St. Joseph Renewal Center Chapel 1725 Brentwood Road, Brentwood, N.Y. All are welcome to join in prayer.

Le plus grand commandement (Mc12 :28-34)

Jésus, notre Example parfait, nous appelle à vivre une vie basée sur l'amour de Dieu et du prochain

La question qu'il formule peut étonner de la part d'un scribe (v.28b). Il est un bon connaisseur de l'Écriture. C'est même sa spécialité. Mais, à l'époque, la discussion est vive entre les rabbins sur l'importance de tel ou tel précepte divin. Ils en ont recensé jusqu'à six cent treize dans l'Ancien Testament.

Les pharisiens, toujours rigoureux sur la Loi, en tirent une morale tatillonne. Un discernement s'impose. On pouvait s'attendre à ce que Jésus renvoie son interlocuteur au Décalogue (cf. Ex20, 1-17). Au lieu de cela, il cite les premiers mots de la prière qui, chez les Juifs, est l'équivalent du 'Notre Père ». Elle porte le nom de « Shema Israel » : « Ecoute Israel... » (Dt 6 : 4-5). C'est une magnifique profession de foi au Dieu Unique qui veut être aimé totalement. Mais Jésus n'en reste pas là. Il joint à ce premier commandement un second qui prescrit l'amour du prochain. Car pour lui, l'amour de Dieu et du prochain est préférable à tous les sacrifices du culte juif (v. 33).

Ainsi, mes chers amis, aimons-nous les uns les autres comme Jésus nous l'a appris. St Augustin disait : « Aime et fais ce que tu veux. » Sans l'amour, l'avenir de l'histoire et du monde est incertain.
