Dear Sisters and Brothers,

As the school year has started, so is the intensity of events and involvement of all parents following the programs and activities of their children. We can say it moves from activity to activity. So it is in the life of the Church, we move from celebration to celebration, from feast day to feast day.

As we have learned last Sunday, the Lord intended suitable company for everyone. We call it family, marriage. God gave us friendship and love, and He wants us to enjoy those gifts. Together with all other blessings of creation it supposed to build the happiness of this life, preparing us for the happiness of heaven.

In the Gospel of today, this man runs up to Jesus asking about inheriting eternal life. Jesus gives him a simple answer by inviting him to keep The Commandments. This will get you to heaven. Somehow, for this man it seems not enough. He could have jumped high rejoicing how simple it is, and continued to be happy with his way of life, but he seemed still unsatisfied. So Jesus looks at him with love and invites him to be part of his close friends. Go, sell everything you have, give it away, and than come and follow me. But the man wasn't ready for this step. He did not know who Jesus was, and did not want to risk loosing all of his possessions in exchange for friendship with Jesus, and for the promise of heaven. His face fell and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

We all are invited to a closer friendship with Jesus, we are invited to risk things of life for serving the Lord and his people. Giving away our goods, giving away our time, giving away our lives is a way of getting to heaven and of keeping friendship with Jesus. We can't worry anymore about our material possessions, then about our eternal friendship and eternal life. That is the proper perspective, so if we perceive the look of love of Jesus, we are invited to pursue it. It's powerful to see how Jesus values the friendship and love. He stands for a family, and He stands for God's family too. It's the best that we have. Material things are supposed to serve, to be used for the sake of ones own and God's family and for friends.

In coming months we have more opportunities for building up our parish family starting with this weekend with the Bishop's visit for the Vigil of the Canonization of Archbishop Oscar Romero. Than on Sunday, the Knights of Columbus have the Octoberfest Picnic in the afternoon. We continue feasting next week with the Feast of Our Lord of the Miracle's, - the Peruvian Feast. Than in November we will host Bishop Richard Henning as he comes for his first visit to our parish as a new Auxiliary Bishop of our Diocese.

On November 17th we have Our Lady of Peace- the Salvadoran Feast, and in December we will have a Inspirational Concert by Daniel Rodriguez, a Puerto Rican American operatic tenor to start the Advent Season by lighting of the lights on the Church and warm our hearts with good heartfelt music. What follows will be the Feast of the Immaculate Conception the Patroness of USA. Soon after we will have Our Lady of Guadalupe and Christmas, than New Year - the Haitian Independence Day that we will celebrate with the Haitian Feast on the day of Epiphany, and to close our celebrations of cultural heritage will be the Feast of Our Lady of Altigracia with all our Dominican friends. Then comes our celebration of Friendship and Love for St Valentine's. That is going to bring us to the Lenten Season. As we can see our calendar is a happy calendar. Our parish celebrations, are a constant family celebration. We keep learning about everyone's culture and spirituality in order to enjoy each other.

May God bless everyone, as we strive to know Christ and perceive his look of love !!! May God give us the grace to correspond to that look of love with loving him back and our neighbor.

Oh and yes, as you see we are progressing with the Memorial Garden, that will accommodate all of the memorial stones from under all the trees memorialized around our property. All the sidewalks and Memorial Garden will cost us $ 20,000. If you wish you may consider contributing towards this project. Thank You for your support ! God bless you always!!!

WORLD PRIEST DAY

World Priest Day is on Sunday,
October 28th Please Join
Worldwide Marriage Encounter in Celebrating by praying a Novena for our Priests, starting Friday, October 19th World Priest Day

(WPD) is a celebration and affirmation of the men who commit their lives to the Lord and the Church via the Sacrament of Holy Orders. It is an opportunity for Catholic Parishioners to thank, affirm and share their love and support for our priests.

HISTORY - The first World Priest Day was celebrated on the third Sunday in September 2000. The event grew from an idea in September of 1998, when the Worldwide Marriage Encounter community in the Diocese of Knoxville, TN decided to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the diocese by honoring all of their priests. The bishop & priests were so appreciative that the leaders of the local M.E. community shared the idea with the leaders of other communities in the Southeastern U.S. Some of those communities adopted the idea in 1999, and had such a positive experience that they brought the idea to the U S Secretariat leadership board. One year later, Worldwide Marriage Encounter officially established the third Sunday of September as World Priest Day.

During the nearly 50 years that Marriage Encounter has existed in the U.S., one of its gifts has been the wonderful relationships that have grown between countless couples and priests. This idea for honoring our priests came from the love and respect that has grown from those relationships. It predated the recent Church scandals, but we believe that building stronger relationships between priests and their people can rebuild our Church! We are together on our faith journey. In 2003 WWME reached out to the full Church and invited other lay groups to join in the celebration of affirming the men who faithfully serve as our beloved priests. In June of 2006, WWME changed the day of World Priest Day to the 4th Sunday in October to coincide with the Serra Club's celebration of Priesthood Sunday. This became effective in 2007.

Priesthood is a special calling and absolutely central to the life of the Church. Let us honor our Priests for their sacrifices, their presence in our lives, and most of all their service to the church.

To live in the midst of the world without wishing its pleasures; To be a member of each family, yet belonging to none; To share all suffering; to penetrate all secrets; To heal all wounds; to go from men to God and offer Him their prayers; To return from God to men to bring pardon and hope; To have a heart of fire for Charity, and a heart of bronze for Chastity To teach and to pardon, console and bless always. My God, what a life; and it is yours, O priest of Jesus Christ. -
-Father Jean-Baptiste Lacordaire

Join us as we pray for nine days in thanksgiving for our Priests.

LECTIO DIVINA – PRAYER & RESOLUTION

PRAYER

Return to the Gospel for today. The Pharisees are trying to argue with Jesus, and he invites them to consider their questions in the larger context of God's original plan.

Take the word that comes to mind and reflect on what it means to you personally. For example, the phrase, "He embraced them and blessed them" might have stuck out to you. Ask yourself what this means in your own life. Is Jesus reminding you that you are the Father's child, and he is embracing you and blessing you even while you are still in sin, or confused, or feel far from him?

L'appel de l'homme riche et le Royaume de Dieu (Mc10 :17-27)

Un homme accourut vers Jésus et lui demanda : « Que dois-je faire pour avoir en héritage la vie éternelle ? » (v.17). Le souci de parvenir à la béatitude future est la quête louable des Juifs pieux, les pharisiens en tête. Jésus accueille bien entendu la question. Comme tout rabbin de son temps, il est mis en demeure de se prononcer clairement sur ce qui fait l'essentiel de la Loi de Moïse. En bon connaisseur de la Loi, Jésus lui cite d'abord des extraits du Décalogue (Ex20, 1-17) ceux des commandements de Dieu qui concerne l'amour du prochain.

Mais tout le sens de son invitation porte sur les mots : « Viens et suis-moi » (v.21d), c'est-à-dire « dépasse la foi de tes pères » et fais ce mouvement totalement nouveau pour toi, devenir le disciple du Messie, que je suis (cf. 1, 17 ; 2,14) Ce dépassement n'est pas facile, comme l'atteste le refus attristé de l'homme (v.22). Comme riche, sa richesse l'a empêché de répondre positivement à l'appel de Jésus.

La Bonne Nouvelle proposée par Jésus est un appel à un dépassement. Il ne suffit pas d'être fidèle aux commandements de Dieu, il faut se mettre à la 'suite' de la personne du Messie.

Le psalmiste dit : « Au Seigneur, le monde et sa richesse, la terre tout ce qu'il contient. » Ainsi, je vous invite à ne rien préférer à l'appel de Jésus. Car tout passe et Dieu seul est Absolu.
