25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

It is a very sad week, as I am writing this article we are still preparing for the Funeral of Evelyn Rodriguez on Friday. On Wednesday, Bishop Barres and Bishop Brennan had planned to visit the Cuevas Family to console and pray for Freddy and all his family. On Thursday I encouraged the Priests and Deacons to make a visit to Grants F. H. for a visit and in the evening hopefully Bishop Andrzej Zglejszewski will be able to lead us in prayer. On Friday was the funeral of Evelyn, a week after she died.

It must be exhausting for the family to wait long days for this final moment with Evelyn in this world, in this life. Probably still unbelieving it is true, because it shouldn't have happened. But as a community and a society we have failed to protect Kayla and Nisa and many others, and ultimately Evelyn. Today and after, we have the opportunity to make it better, and for the sake of those lost lives and broken families we must succeed in our response.

For the funeral there is going to be a delegation of Public Officials of different ranks, some of whom were supposed to take part in the Vigil prepared a week earlier to commemorate Kayla Cuevas and Nisa Mickens on the 2nd anniversary of their death. It was so unfortunate that the site where they were found, became the site where Evelyn would lose her life trying to honor their memory, and standing for safety of all other children and youth.

Evelyn laid her life not only for her own children, but for all children and youth, seeking for them safety and more opportunities for positive growth and learning. The presence of all those public officials at Evelyn's funeral, is a witness to the fact, that Evelyn and Freddy turned their grief and loss of their beloved daughter into a courageous stand for a better life and future for all children and youth. The issues that she supported by her social and political involvement, among which is the previous unchallenged reign of gangs on our streets and in the schools, where the gangs would recruit youth for violence and drugs. Those who support recreational marijuana, suggest our children and youth that it's OK to get initiated into drugs, and that is a gang territory, because it's a place where they become providers of supply and service. Those who support recreational drugs, give power to gangs to rule lives of those who become users, and the rest of the society becomes the enemy of those drug providers. Here it becomes an issue of immigration, because of a border crossing, that it is as well the drug crossing place, and again a surrender of power to cartels providing drugs entry into our country. And so it becomes a disease not only for our Latino population but for the young population at all. This is why Evelyn gave her voice and supported our President, to create more opportunities for our youth, starting from school opportunities to work opportunities and ultimately to life opportunities, that would go beyond government handouts and dependence enslavement.

I hope that at Evelyn's funeral, those who will take voice will take it to honor her for her courage and strength and not to advocate their personal political agenda. Evelyn became the advocate for youth and children's opportunities for better lives, for normal lives. She was the strength of her family, together with Freddy standing for what she believed was just. Now we need to stand with Freddy to give him the strength to stand for both; himself and Evelyn in all those issues and life, that has to continue to grow with her children and grandson, Kelsy, the little Kaitlyn, baby Kaiden and all our children and youth.

We can ask ourselves in this tragic moment where was God when all this happened ??? Does God care ??? Does God love us ??? If so why did it happen ???

Preparing for this funeral in the sadness of these days, I was thinking about two texts of the Gospel, that would be appropriate to express our faith and Evelyn's life. One was from Mathew 5:1-12 the Beatitudes, that we have heard proclaimed by Deacon Andre. The Beatitudes express the life of a fighter who hungers and thirsts for justice and God promises their satisfaction. They show mercy because they desire it for all not just for themselves, they seek clean heart because they seek what is good for all, they are peacemakers by seeking harmony between all people, poor in the spirit recognizing the limitations of everyone and of ones own, mourning the loss of loved ones and suffering with those who are hurting, meek are those who expect good things from God and do what is necessary to acquire them, blessed are those who sacrifice things of their own and are ready to suffer for the just cause for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Evelyn is the blessed one, because she already knows the fullness of God's love and glory. Like Jesus, she gave us all that she had, she gave her life for us all. Life was taken away from her like from Jesus, but she was glad to spend it on others. She did not seek happiness for herself, she had lost it losing Kayla, but she was eager to preserve it for others by protecting their kids. We would be truly inheriting God's land, if we would govern ourselves with those values that Evelyn practiced in her life.

In the second passage of the Gospel that was coming to my mind in those days, was the Testament of Jesus uttered by Him from the cross in the Gospel of St Jn 19: 25-28, it says: 25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, "Woman, behold your son!" 27 Then He said to the disciple, "Behold your mother!" And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home. 28 After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I thirst!"

Jesus knowing that he was unjustly on the cross, didn't complain about it rather was concerned for others. He worries about everyone to be taken care of, that no one is left alone. And then He pours out his heart, the last thing on his mind; his testament by saying: I THIRST !. Jesus did not speak about the physical thirst of his body, but about the spiritual thirst of his heart. As Saint Teresa of Calcutta explains; Jesus is thirsty for your and mine answer of selfless and sacrificial love in return to his love. Will you hear his words and answer to his love with good deeds ???

Evelyn did her part. She gave it all even if it was taken away from her.

Where was God ??? God sent you and me; to be his words to teach the ignorant; to be his hands to help the needy; to be his feet to follow the lost; to be his heart to love the unwanted; to be his mind to fight for his truth.

Didn't you hear him ??? Didn't you act ??? Didn't you believe him ???

Don't wait to long for more victims to be made, we had too many.

Evelyn did her part to the end. Now you and I have to do ours.

Let us pray for Freddy and whole family for strength to endure the pain and loss, and for strength to carry out the legacy left by Evelyn.

Rest In Peace Evelyn, we thank you for your friendship and love.

God bless you all !!!

Supporting Dramatic Missionary Growth
on Long Island and Beyond

Learning from Saint Teresa of Calcutta

This month, we celebrated the feast day of Saint Teresa of Calcutta. She was such an influential woman who touched the lives of so many people... and continues to do so even now! She reminds us that we are all called to be the Hands of Christ's Mercy in our communities today.

We need not be in the streets of Calcutta to do good for our brothers and sisters in Christ. We can help our community here on Long Island through the 2018 Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Your gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal will help more than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers receive support and assistance from the funds shared through the CMA each year. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.

Saint Teresa of Calcutta, pray for us!

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is Stewardship in Action!

XXV Domingo Ordinario (B)

Sb 2, 12.17-20 La corrección que el justo hace molesta al malvado o en todo caso su testimonio incomoda el mal obrar del neccio, en Prov. 9,8 leemos: Corrige al sabio y será mas sabio, corrige al ignorante y lo harás tu enemigo, este versículo resume la actitud del hombre a través del tiempo, de aquel que a la luz de la Escritura hace la voluntad de Dios, o del que, al menos, se deja conducir por la verdad natural puesta en su corazón para obrar el bien.

St 3, 16-4,3 El Apóstol afirma que las diferencias entre los miembros de una Comunidad vienen de sus malas pasiones, entendamos que están son fruto de vivir al margen de la espiritualidad, o de un concepto materialista, del afán de dinero o de poder. Se nos da en la segunda lectura las características del sabio y las consecuencias de su buen obrar: Los pacíficos siembran la paz y cosechan frutos de justicia.

Mc 9, 30-37 Por el camino los discípulos habían discutido sobre quien de ellos era el más importante, en contraposición afirma Jesús: Quien quiera ser el primero, sea el servidor de todos. Se nos invita hoy a recibir este Evangelio con la actitud de los niños, no de un infante inmaduro e inexperto, sino con actitud de inocencia espiritual del que recibe de Dios un mandato que Jesús traduce con su testimonio, como hombre sabio que incomoda al neccio pero que reconforta a quien lo recibe como el enviado del Padre.

Tu promulgas, Señor, tus preceptos para que se observen con exactitud. Que mi conducta se ajuste siempre, al cumplimiento de tu voluntad.

De notre communauté en disant :

Souvenez-vous, ô très miséricordieuse Vierge Marie, qu'on n'a jamais entendu dire qu'aucun de ceux qui ont eu recours à votre protection, implorez votre assistance ou réclamé votre secours, ait été abandonné.

Animé d'une pareille confiance, ô Vierge des vierges, ô ma Mère, je cours, je viens à vous et, gémissant sous le poids de mes péchés, je me prosterne à vos pieds.

Ô Mère du Verbe incarné, ne rejetez pas mes humbles prières, mais écoutez-les favorablement et daignez les exaucer. Amen

La deuxième annonce de la Passion et comment suivre Jésus

Jésus entreprend ici ce qu'on appelle couramment sa 'montée à Jérusalem'. Cette marche ultime le conduit vers son destin sanglant. Mais 'il ne voulait pas qu'on le sache' (v.30b). C'est toujours la loi du 'secret messianique'.

Le Fils de l'homme va être 'livré' aux mains des hommes. Ce sont des hommes qui livreront Jésus à mort : Judas (14,10), les grands prêtres (15,1), et Pilate (15,15). Ses amis restent obstinément sourds à l'enseignement du Maître (v.32). C'est le thème de 'l'incompréhension' des disciples devant l'effort toujours déployé par Jésus pour les introduire à l'énigme de son destin.

En route, les disciples ont rivalisé pour savoir qui, d'entre eux, était le plus grand (v.34) Le Maître se doit d'intervenir de façon claire pour détourner ses amis de la course au pouvoir qui les habite.

Mes chers amis, dans la Bible Jésus nous donne un exemple clé à imiter si nous voulons le servir : « nous devons nous comporter en enfant ». Il est unanime à reconnaître que cette attitude est loin d'être acceptée dans cette société car disons-nous souvent : 'la raison du plus fort est toujours la meilleure'. Et ceux qui détiennent le pouvoir et l'autorité ne font que régner sur les petits et les faibles. La Parole de Dieu nous enseigne que c'est l'amour qui sauvera le monde. Alors, chrétiens, servons nos prochains dans la simplicité c'est ainsi que nous deviendrons grands.

The Haitian National Apostolate over the past thirty-five years has always instilled a strong sense of Church, Unity and Love.
