Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This Sunday's readings are among the most beautiful in the Scriptures, pointing to deep truths about our relationship with God.

The first one from the prophet Jeremiah, points to us the reality of God knowing us before we were formed in our mothers womb. We were known to God before we were conceived. How lasting and fundamental is God's presence to us. God has a universe prepared and waiting for us, than He was essentially involved in forming us in the womb of our mother before she really came to naturally nurture us through her body, and than bringing us to the world at birth, she continued to prepare us for survival in this world.

At every step of this process, God was maintaining the universe to be a good place for us. He was present at every breath that we ever took. Even our loving mother is not aware of our every instance of life, but God is aware of our every breath. Isn't it amazing and wonderful ??

God sustains our life every second by providing for us all necessary conditions. He calls us to accomplish a part of his plan of salvation to bring it to the nations. What is this plan?, and what is my and your part in it ??? Is there any other plan ??? Is there anything better to do, than to collaborate with God's plan ??? His plan is eternal, our plans are little, temporary plans.

The best way of being a part of the master plan made by God, is to listen to his word by answering with love. Saint Paul gives us the answer in the second reading, by approaching all things with faith, hope and love. Those three virtues, are the best indicator and guide to happy and fulfilled life. Love itself is the best way to answer, to direct ones life. This mature love, has to include the one who is the origin of love-God, and than others as oneself. It is fascinating to read, how much Saint Paul exalts love and shows, how it perfects all other gifts and virtues, by standing above them in time and in eternity. Love is the greatest of all things, and ultimately Love is of God, because God is Love. If we would know, how to love God, ourselves and others, we would fulfill perfectly God's plan. Seems, Saint Paul learned for himself how to love, and attempts to teach us.

When Jesus takes on this task, in the Gospel of today, he is challenged by people of his own town Nazareth, who pretend knowing better what is important in life, and plan on killing Jesus who offended their spiritual pride and their way of life.

How eager are we to hear from Jesus, about what He thinks about our way of life, and about what is important in life ???

Our youth have returned from Panama, recharged with faith experience. I hope that they could say something about their experience on the end of Masses this or coming weekends, to make us aware how meaningful experience it was for them. It can be a life changing experience if one should meet Jesus in this encounter of faith. I wish and pray, that it is so for them all.

For the rest of us, if we respond to Jesus' daily invitation, we can arrive at perception and capacity to love as He loves us.

*God bless everyone always !!!
Fr. Stan*

Queridas Hermanas y Hermanos:

Las lecturas de este Domingo se encuentran entre las mas bellas Escrituras, señalando verdades profundas sobre nuestra relación con Dios.

La primera del profeta Jeremías, nos señala la realidad de que Dios no conoce antes de que nos formemos en el vientre de nuestra madre. Dios no conocía antes de ser concebidos. Cuan duradera y fundamental es la presencia de Dios para nosotros. Dios tiene un universo preparado y esperándonos, de lo que estuvo esencialmente involucrado en formarnos en el vientre de nuestra madre antes de que ella realmente nos nutriera naturalmente a través de su cuerpo, y luego de traernos al mundo al nacer, ella continuo preparándonos para la supervivencia en este mundo. En cada paso de este proceso, Dios mantenía el universo como un buen lugar para nosotros. El estuvo presente en cada respiración que alguna vez tomamos. Incluso nuestra madre amorosa no es consciente de cada uno de nuestros ejemplos de vida, pero Dios esta consciente de cada respiración. No es asombroso y maravilloso??

Dios sostiene nuestra vida cada segundo al proporcionarnos todas las condiciones necesarias. El nos llama a cumplir una parte de su plan de salvación para llevarlo a las naciones. ¿Qué es este plan, y cual es mi y tu parte en ello??? ¿Hay algún otro plan? ¿Hay algo mejor que hacer que colaborar con el plan de Dios? Su plan es eterno, nuestros planes son pequeños, planes temporales.

La mejor manera de ser parte de un plan maestro hecho por Dios, es escuchar su palabra respondiendo con amor. San Pablo nos da la respuesta en la segunda lectura, al abordar todas las cosas con fe, esperanza y amor. Esas tres virtudes, son el mejor indicador y guía para una vida feliz y plena. El amor en si mismo es la mejor manera de responder, de dirigir la vida. Este amor, tiene que incluir al que es el origen de Dios de amor, y de otros como uno mismo. Es fascinante leer, cuanto exalta San Pablo al amor y lo que muestra, como perfecciona todos los demás dones y virtudes, destacándose sobre ellos en el tiempo y en la eternidad. El amor es mas grande de todas las cosas, y en ultima instancia, el amor es de Dios, porque Dios es amor. Si supiéramos, como amar a Dios, a nosotros mismos ya los demás, sabríamos, como amar a Dios, a nosotros mismos y a los demás, cumpliríamos perfectamente el plan de Dios. Parece, San Pablo aprendió por si mismo como amar, e intenta enseñarnos.

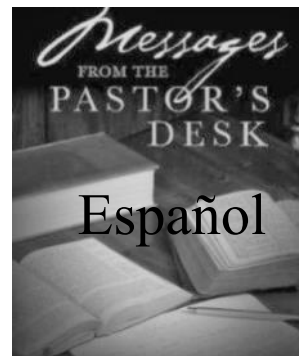

Cuando Jesús asume esta tarea, en el Evangelio de hoy, es desafiado por las personas de su propio pueblo, Nazareh, quienes pretenden saber mejor lo que es importante en la vida y planean matar a Jesús que ofendió su orgullo espiritual y su forma de vida.

¿Cuántas ganas tenemos de escuchar a Jesús, acerca de lo que El piensa acerca de nuestra forma de vida y de lo que es importante en la vida?

Tenemos a nuestros jóvenes que han regresado de Panamá, recargados con experiencia de fe. Espero que puedan decir algo sobre su experiencia al final de las Misas este fin de semana o el próximo. Para hacernos conscientes de cuan significativa fue la experiencia para ellos. Puede ser una experiencia que cambie la vida si uno se encuentra con Jesús en este encuentro de fe. Deseo y oro, que asi sea para todos. Para el resto de nosotros, si respondemos a la invitación diaria de Jesús, podemos llegar a la percepción y la capacidad de amar como El nos ama.

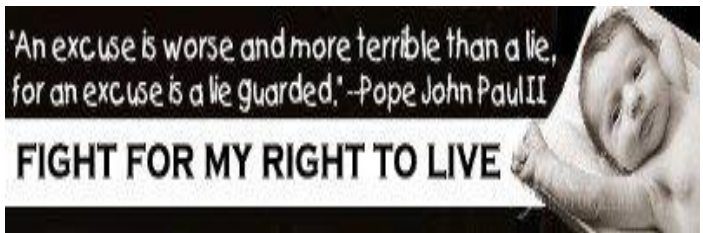

Dios les bendiga a todos siempre!!!

BOOK TALK SERIES

COME MEET DR. TOM PETRIANO SPEAKING ON:

Alice McDermott's The Ninth Hour and the Middle Class of Holiness.

The contemporary fiction writer, Alice McDermott (The Ninth Hour and The Middle Class of Holiness) has written a beautiful trilogy of grace and holiness. Her most recent novel, The Ninth Hour, powerfully depicts what Pope Francis, in his encyclical on holiness, Rejoice and be Glad, calls "the middle class of holiness." Join us for a discussion of these novels with a particular focus on The Ninth Hour.

Evangile de Jésus-Christ selon St Luc : 4 :21-30

Dans la synagogue de Nazareth, après la lecture du livre d'Isaïe, Jésus déclara : « Cette parole de l'Écriture, que vous venez d'entendre, c'est aujourd'hui qu'elle s'accomplit. » Tous lui rendaient témoignage ; et ils s'étonnaient du message de grâce qui sortait de sa bouche. Ils se demandaient : « N'est-ce pas là le fils de Joseph ? » Mais il leur dit : « Sûrement vous allez me citer le dicton : 'Médecin, guéris-toi toi-même. Nous avons appris tout ce qui s'est passé à Capharnaüm : fais donc de même ici dans ton pays !' » Puis il ajouta : « Amen, je vous le dis : aucun prophète n'est bien accueilli dans son pays. En toute vérité, je vous le déclare : Au temps du prophète Élie, lorsque la sécheresse et la famine ont sévi pendant trois ans et demi, il y avait beaucoup de veuves en Israël ; pourtant Élie n'a été envoyé vers aucune d'entre elles, mais bien à une veuve étrangère, de la ville de Sarepta, dans le pays de Sidon. Au temps du prophète Élisée, il y avait beaucoup de lépreux en Israël ; pourtant aucun d'eux n'a été purifié, mais bien Naaman, un Syrien. » A ces mots, dans la synagogue, tous devinrent furieux. Ils se levèrent, poussèrent Jésus hors de la ville, et le menèrent jusqu'à un escarpement de la colline où la ville est construite, pour le précipiter en bas. Mais lui, passant au milieu d'eux, allait son chemin.
