Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This Sunday we end the Christmas season with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. The baptism that Jesus received from John the Baptist was not the same as the sacrament Christians receive today. It was a call to repentance, but it did not remove the stain of original sin. Jesus, however, had no need for repentance, nor did he have original sin. Why, then, was he baptized? Rather than being a requirement to remove sin, this was an active choice that Jesus made. Even John the Baptist questioned that choice. Yet the three key implications of this choice are stunning indications of God's love for us.

First, Jesus humbled himself by being baptized and joining sinners. Jesus did not need to repent for any sin, actual or original. He knew this, and he still insisted that John the Baptist baptize him in the Jordan River. By receiving baptism, Jesus joined us sinners and took on the burden of our sins. At this moment, the beginning of his public ministry, he took the next crucial step in agreeing to bear the sins of the world and grant us salvation. Although he was spotless, he did not put himself above baptism because he wanted to partake fully in our humanity in all things but sin.

Secondly, at Jesus' baptism the Gospel reveals to us the Trinity. In his Gospel, Mark writes, "When Jesus was baptized, he went up immediately from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove on him; and a voice from heaven, was saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased"". Here, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit come together to reveal the Trinity. For the first time, Jesus is revealed as the Messiah. This was a tipping point in salvation history, and the invocation of the Trinity is a beautiful indication of that.

Thirdly, Jesus sanctified the waters of baptism for us. Today, Christians are blessed to receive the Sacrament of Baptism, through which God cleanses us of original sin and we are incorporated into the Body of his Church. The sacramental nature of this action comes from Jesus' own baptism. Just as we receive grace from Baptism, Jesus imparted grace when he received baptism by sanctifying the baptismal waters. It is thanks to his selfless, humbling act of being baptized that we receive grace in the Sacrament of Baptism.

The baptism of Jesus is another Epiphany - manifestation of God and of the whole of The Blessed Trinity. From now on Jesus openly begins his public ministry of proclamation of God's kingdom. In our baptism the Blessed Trinity takes a special possession of our being as it is invited into the life of the baptized. It is in baptism that we are made sons and daughters of God, and it is up to parents and godparents or sponsors to communicate the voice of God from heaven: that we are beloved daughters and sons of God. It is in that communication of God's love, that faith finds its ground to take roots in persons life. In this communication of God's love and mercy that lies the essence of Evangelization and proclamation of the Gospel.

As we are anointed after baptism, we are invited to share with Christ in his triple mission as: Prophets, Priests and Kings; by proclaiming the Word of God to others with words and deeds, by praying and offering sacrifices for ourselves and for others, so that we would reign with Christ in heaven as Kings.

As baptized persons we want to remember, that we are totally loved by God and by baptism we are invited to Communion with Father, Son and Holy Spirit here on earth and in happiness of heaven.

Today we have a great privilege to baptize 45 children and young people of whom 34 are in preparation for the First Communion and they are part of Religious Formation Program, and 11 are their younger siblings under age 6. The baptism will be celebrated in two Masses at 9am and 11am this Sunday. It is a special day for them as they become a part of the Church, the Body of Christ, and for us it is a reminder of our own privilege of being God's children redeemed by Christ's life, death and resurrection.

I want to thank everyone for your prayers, and Bertha and all of the teachers and catechist for preparing all of our students, by sharing their faith and love.

Congratulations to everyone on this great step of becoming members of the Church of Christ, as beloved sons and daughters of God.

God bless everyone always !!!

Fr. Stan

Hermanas y Hermanos,

Este Domingo terminamos la temporada de Navideña con la Fiesta del Bautismo del Señor. El bautismo que Jesús recibió de Juan el Bautista no fue el mismo que el sacramento que los cristianos reciben hoy. Fue un llamado al arrepentimiento, pero no eliminó la mancha del pecado original. Jesús, sin embargo, no tenía necesidad de arrepentirse, ni tenía pecado original. ¿Por qué, entonces, fue bautizado? En lugar de ser un requisito para eliminar el pecado, esta fue una elección activa que hizo Jesús. Incluso Juan el Bautista cuestionó esa elección. Sin embargo, las tres implicaciones clave de esta elección son indicaciones sorprendentes del amor de Dios por nosotros.

Primero, Jesús se humilló al ser bautizado y unirse a los pecadores. Jesús no necesitaba arrepentirse por ningún pecado, real u original. Él sabía esto, y todavía insistía en que Juan el Bautista lo bautizara en el Río Jordán. Al recibir el bautismo, Jesús se unió a nosotros pecadores y asumió la carga de nuestros Queridos pecados. En este momento, al comienzo de su ministerio público, dio el siguiente paso crucial al aceptar llevar los pecados del mundo y concedernos la salvación. Aunque estaba impecable, no se colocó por encima del bautismo porque quería participar plenamente en nuestra humanidad en todo menos en el pecado.

En Segundo lugar, en el bautismo de Jesús, el Evangelio nos revela la Trinidad. En su Evangelio, Mark escribe: “Cuando Jesús fue bautizado, el subió inmediatamente del agua, y he aquí, los cielos se abrieron y vio que el Espíritu de Dios descendía como una paloma sobre él; y una voz del cielo decía: “Este es mi Hijo amado, con quien estoy muy complacido”. Aquí, el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo se unen para revelar la Trinidad. Por primera vez, Jesús se revela como el Mesías. Este fue un punto de inflexión en la historia de la salvación, y la invocación de la Trinidad es una hermosa indicación de eso.

En Tercer lugar, Jesús santificó las aguas del bautismo por nosotros. Hoy, los cristianos tienen la bendición de recibir el sacramento del bautismo, a través del cual Dios nos limpia del pecado original y somos incorporados al Cuerpo de su Iglesia. La naturaleza sacramental de esta acción proviene del propio bautismo de Jesús. Así como recibimos gracia del bautismo, Jesús impartió gracia cuando recibió el bautismo al santificar las aguas bautismales. Es gracias a su acto desinteresado y humilde de ser bautizado que recibimos gracia en el sacramento del bautismo.

El bautismo de Jesús es otra manifestación de la Epifanía de Dios y de toda la Santísima Trinidad. A partir de ahora, Jesús comienza abiertamente su ministerio público de proclamación del reino de Dios. En nuestro bautismo, la Santísima Trinidad toma una posesión especial de nuestro ser al ser invitado a la vida de los bautizados. Es en el bautismo que somos hechos hijos e hijas de Dios, y depende de los padres y padrinos o patrocinadores comunicar la voz de Dios desde el cielo: que somos hijos e hijas amados de Dios. Es en esa comunicación del amor de Dios, que la fe encuentra terreno para echar raíces en la vida de la persona. En esta comunicación del amor y la misericordia de Dios que se encuentra la esencia de la evangelización y la proclamación del Evangelio.

Como somos ungidos después del bautismo, estamos invitados a compartir con Cristo en su triple misión como: Profetas, Sacerdotes y Reyes; proclamando la Palabra de Dios a otros con palabras y hechos, orando y ofreciendo sacrificios por nosotros mismos y por los demás, para que reinemos con Cristo en el cielo como reyes. Como personas bautizadas queremos recordar, que somos totalmente amados por Dios y por el bautismo estamos invitados a la Comunión con el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo aquí en la tierra y en la felicidad del cielo.

Hoy tenemos el gran privilegio de bautizar a 45 niños y jóvenes, de los cuales 34 se están preparando para la Primera Comunión y forman parte del Programa de Formación Religiosa, y 11 son sus hermanos menores de 6 años. El bautismo se celebrará en dos misas a las 9am y 11 am este Domingo. Es un día especial para ellos, ya que se convierten en parte de la Iglesia, el Cuerpo de Cristo, y para nosotros es un recordatorio de nuestro propio privilegio de ser hijos de Dios redimidos por la vida, muerte y resurrección de Cristo.

Quiero agradecerles a todos por sus oraciones, y a Bertha y a todos los maestros y catequistas por preparar a todos nuestros estudiantes, compartiendo su fe y amor.

Felicitaciones a todos por este gran paso de convertirse en miembros de la Iglesia de Cristo, como amados hijos e hijas de Dios.

Dios les bendiga siempre!!!

DOMINGO DEL BAUTISMO DEL SEÑOR

A la orilla del Jordán, descalza el alma y los pies, Bajan buscando pureza doce tribus de Israel.

Piensan que a la puerta está el Mesías del Señor Y que, para recibirlo, gran limpieza es menester. Bajan hombres y mujeres, pobres y ricos también, Y Juan sobre todos ellos derrama el agua y la fe.

Porque el bautismo hoy empieza,
y él lo quiere inaugurar.

Amén.

Le baptême de Jésus (Mt 3, 13-17)

Jésus, arrivant de Galilée, paraît sur les bords du Jourdain, et il vient à Jean pour se faire baptiser par lui. Jean voulait l'en empêcher et disait : « C'est moi qui ai besoin de me faire baptiser par toi, et c'est toi qui viens à moi ! »

Mais Jésus lui répondit : « Pour le moment, laisse-moi faire ; c'est de cette façon que nous devons accomplir parfaitement ce qui est juste. »

Alors Jean le laisse faire.

Dès que Jésus fut baptisé, il sortit de l'eau ; voici que les cieux s'ouvrirent, et il vit l'Esprit de Dieu descendre comme une colombe et venir sur lui. Et des cieux, une voix disait : « Celui-ci est mon Fils bien-aimé ; en lui j'ai mis tout mon amour. »
