Dear Sisters and Brothers,

On this third Sunday of Lent we have the Gospel telling us about Jesus encounter with Samaritan woman at the water well. She is surprised that Jesus talks to her, and even more surprised because he wants her to give him a drink, and he did not have even a bucket as she observed, since normally Jews would not use anything in common with Samaritans.

As Gospel says, Jews did not want anything to do with other nations or populations whom they considered pagans, unbelievers and unclean, something difficult to comprehend for us who are aware of human equality before God. They considered others as impure in a ritual way, so that any physical contact with Samaritans would contaminate the Jew, who would need some purification ritual to be clean again.

Those ritual purifications, were a good way to keep hygiene among people, and ultimately a healthy population. We can see the inspiration to follow those rules, as a way to protect and strengthen chosen people.

Jesus felt free to step out of those rules, to show God's love reaching to everyone. Even more; talking to a woman he showed that God's love goes beyond gender, race and nationality. Our outreach and openness to share the Gospel applies to everyone and always. Jesus human need for water, gave the Samaritan Woman a possibility to engage in dialogue with Jesus; and ultimately provoked by her faith, Jesus reveals to her his true identity. It is a rare occurrence, but through her genuine conversation, Jesus opens for her the treasure of his love, promising her the life giving water, so she would never thirst again. In the dialogue with Jesus, Samaritan Woman finds as well her identity, when Jesus reveals to her how he knows everything about her, and yet is not scandalized about it, rather he opens his heart to her.

Moved by her experience, she becomes a missionary to her own community, which turns to Jesus and welcomes him into their midst. Jesus on his part corresponds to the desire of that community, to know him and to be saved as they professed their faith in the Messiah.

Jesus desire, to satisfy the thirst for God and his love in the hearts of those who are outcasts, sinners, marginalized and unclean is always there. He is waiting to engage us into genuine conversation with him, let us give him a chance to reveal himself to us, as he did with the Samaritan Woman.

We can do it by following our Lenten resolutions and participating in Lenten practices and retreats, way of the cross, Adoration, prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Let this be our way to engage in dialogue with Jesus, to provoke his self revelation to us and our community.

As I started this article with the comments on Jewish traditions about purification and cleansing, may this be our reference to the new rules of behavior in our own community, regarding our corona virus precautions.

We stop using the holy water at the entrance door to the church. To have holy water at home, please bring a bottle of water to the Mass, and at the exit the priest or deacon will bless it for you. We avoid as much as we can the human touch, by greeting each other with smile instead of handshake. We skip sign of peace, and receive Holy Communion on the palm of our hand. As ministers we sanitize our hands before distribution of Communion. Let us wash our hands often in our daily routine. We cover our cough with the arm and take precaution by staying home when sick. This are routine things, that would help us with common colds, that we all may undergo during the course of the winter. Let's take it with calm and prayer for all sick people around the world.

God bless everyone always !!!

CAMPAÑA DE APOYO A LOS MINISTERIOS CATÓLICOS
DIÓCESIS DE ROCKVILLE CENTRE

“La Cuaresma es un tiempo propicio para abrir la puerta a cualquier necesitado y reconocer en él o en ella el rostro de Cristo. Cada uno de nosotros los encontramos en nuestro camino.”

-Papa Francisco

Estimados amigos:

En esta Cuaresma, permítame hacer un pedido especial. No importa si ustedes nunca han contribuido o si no lo pudieron hacer durante los últimos años: los invito a que este año ustedes se unan conmigo y con otros feligreses de esta parroquia y hagan un donativo a favor de la Campaña 2020.

Puede que ya sea de su conocimiento, que el 100% de lo que recaudamos se destina al sostenimiento de más de 60 programas que prestan ayuda y servicio tanto a la gente de nuestra iglesia como a muchas otras personas que viven en Long Island.

Estos programas incluyen servicios para personas necesitadas: vivienda asequible para ancianos, discapacitados y nuestros veteranos; formación para nuestros sacerdotes, diáconos, dirigentes laicos y nuestros jóvenes. Estos son solo algunos ejemplos de los programas que hacen que nuestra iglesia y que Long Island sea un excelente lugar para vivir.

¡Necesitamos su colaboración para poder seguir auxiliando a quienes requieren nuestra ayuda y guía espiritual! Imagínense a cuantas personas más podríamos ayudar si 100 de nuestros feligreses -quienes no hayan participado recientemente- hicieran este año un donativo de $25. Si esa cantidad fuera demasiado, considere hacer un donativo de $10 o de $5. ¡Todas las cantidades son importantes y hacen la diferencia en la vida del prójimo!

Escriba su cheque pagadero a:

El tiempo de Cuaresma (III)

Si nos fijamos en los evangelios de los domingos de Cuaresma, nos daremos cuenta de que este tiempo tiene tres partes:

Los dos primeros domingos. Cada año leemos las mismas escenas evangélicas, según el evangelista que corresponde a ese ciclo: son las escenas de las tentaciones y de la transfiguración, que nos recuerdan dos aspectos claves de nuestro camino cuaresmal. Las tentaciones nos recuerdan que Jesús tuvo que luchar contra el mal, y el mal era la posibilidad de ser un Mesías bien alimentado, poderoso, admirado...: él se negó porque el camino de Dios no es este, sino el del amor fiel y entregado (y nos invita a nosotros a hacer como él).

La transfiguración nos hace mirar hacia el final de la vida de Jesús, la muerte en la cruz, y nos invita a creer que, contra todos los criterios humanos, éste es un camino luminoso, el camino de la vida.

El tercer, cuarto y quinto domingos. Cada uno de los tres ciclos destaca un aspecto del camino cuaresmal. En el ciclo A leemos los tres evangelios tradicionales que se utilizaban como catequesis para los que se preparaban a recibir el bautismo: la samaritana, el ciego de nacimiento y Lázaro, que nos muestran a Jesús como agua que da vida, como luz que ilumina, como resurrección para los que creen en él. El ciclo B nos presenta tres escenas que nos hacen contemplar el sentido de la cruz de Jesús, como camino hacia Dios y como salvación y vida. El ciclo C centra nuestra atención en un aspecto también clave en el tiempo cuaresmal: la llamada a la conversión, que es a la vez anuncio del amor misericordioso de Dios que siempre nos da la mano para levantarnos y comenzar de nuevo.

El domingo de Ramos, que es sexto domingo de Cuaresma. Ese día, nuestra mirada se fija en Jesús que comienza su camino definitivo. Lo aclamamos reconociéndolo como nuestro Señor y guía, y después en la Eucaristía contemplamos su Pasión.

Venez en foule

Quel comportement le fidèle catholique doit-il avoir pendant ce temps de carême ?

Dans un autre écrit des années 128 l'Apologie d'Aristide, nous lisons : « Lorsqu'il y a un pauvre parmi eux (les chrétiens) qui a besoin d'être secouru, ils jeûnent pendant deux ou trois jours et ont coutume de lui envoyer la nourriture qu'ils s'étaient préparée pour eux-mêmes. De même, pour ceux qui sont en prison, quand on n'a pas de quoi leur acheter des vivres. Ainsi, le jeûne devient source de l'aumône.

La vie terrestre était perçue comme un don de Dieu pour accéder à la communion. Le Carême est aussi un temps de Metanoia. Un temps de pénitence, de conversion et de réconciliation. Dès le premier jour du Carême, le mercredi des Cendres, nous avons entendu : convertissez-vous et croyez à la bonne nouvelle ! Il convient que ce temps soit marqué par notre conversion, un retour à Dieu si nous nous étions éloignés de lui. Un retour par une préparation et la réception du sacrement de réconciliation. Le pardon de Dieu est toujours possible si nous faisons une démarche vraiment sincère, en reconnaissant nos péchés et en les regrettant. En se reconnaissant pécheur et en venant à lui dans ce sacrement, nous croyons à l'amour infini de Dieu qui est toujours le plus fort.

Our Lady of Providence Spelling Bee was held on Thursday, March 5. Congratulations to the winners who will represent our school proudly at the Diocesan Invitational Spelling Bee at St. Patrick School in Bay Shore.

Effective immediately, the following changes will occur within our church and the Liturgy of the Mass.

As a health precaution, the Diocese of Rockville Centre instructs all Pastors, Clergy and Parishioners to enact the following measures immediately.

1. Until further notice, the Precious Blood of Christ (the Chalice) is not to be distributed to anyone other than clergy (priests/deacons).
2. Until further notice, the Sign of Peace will not be given or exchanged in any form during Holy Mass. A simple smile is not contagious.
3. Parishioners are instructed to remain at home if they are sick. This is a precaution for all who serve in any ministries withing the Liturgy of the Mass.
4. All Priest, deacons, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion and altar servers should use the hand sanitizers provided on both sides of the altar before serving. They should also be encouraged to wash and sanitize their hands before and after distribution of the Eucharist.
5. Holy Water fonts will be left empty till further notice. If you want Holy Water for your home, just bring the container in and one of the Priest or Deacons will bless the water for you.
6. We are asking all Parishioners to receive Holy Communion in their hands not on their tongues during this precautionary time.
7. We will make every effort to clean and disinfect our church and the pews as often as possible.
8. We ask all to refrain from greeting /handshakes, especially with Our Priest and Deacons before and after Masses at this time.

This information will appear regularly in our Parish Bulletin beginning this weekend. Thank you for your cooperation in enforcing these temporary changes.
