A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR – 16th SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This Sunday we celebrate the feast of St. Anne, our Patroness. Together with St. Joachim they are the parents of the Blessed Mother. What an atmosphere of faith and love must have been present in their home, as God thought it fit to entrust them with this precious gift of the Immaculate Conception, the Blessed Mother herself. What a wonderful home must they have created for the Mother of God's Son. Yet, what a surprise and challenge they must have found in learning of the pregnancy of their daughter before she went to live with her husband Joseph? Only in heaven will we find answers to those questions, and surely, we will be amazed to learn how human they were and how God-fearing and faithful to God and to each other.

By now we know that Jesus is the only Savior of the World and of every human being. We all want to share in the work of Jesus, because we all want to share in his glory. We share in it by actively reaching out to people by word and witness of life, witness of caring for God and for others. We want to step out of ourselves towards others. So, let's be part of the work of the church, so we can be part of the festivities in heaven for eternal life after our death. Let the Word of God take good roots in our lives, and bear the good fruits of good deeds for eternal life ~ as Jesus was asking us last Sunday. The purpose of our lives is to get to heaven, so let's be on our way toward it.

In the Gospel of today, Jesus explains to us the important thing about the existence of evil in the world. Isn't it a part of our questions in life- why things do happen to us and to others? With today's parable, Jesus answers that question of how Evil came into the world, not by the making of the owner, but by the negligence of the servants. Evil cannot have its origin in God. Its reason and origin is, as well, beyond man.

"Death came into the world by the envy of the Devil, and is experienced by those who belong to him" (Wisdom 2,24). The sowing of evil came with the fault of the people, because they were not vigilant. This lack of vigilance is used by the enemy who sabotages the work of the farmer. The enemy sows a lie in the heart of the man, that produces distrust, despair, egoism (Genesis 3,1). Evil comes in darkness and enters unnoticed. The seeds of good and evil grow parallel in the heart of the man, the truth and lie exist next to each other and not always are we capable of recognizing it. Human efforts to eliminate external evil ends in hurting the human person who is identified with the evil, and that is mistake because no man is totally evil, there is always some good in every human being. We cannot condemn the good of the person because of our hatred for evil.

Even in the Church we can't totally eliminate the evil by making it the church of the pure, because it would be another distortion of truth, as the church of perfect people does not exist here on earth. It will be holy and perfect and glorious Church after the second coming of Christ. Today, the Church it is not a Sect of the pure and perfect, but it is an association of sinners in need of God.

God invites us to patiently wait for the time of harvest, when his Angels will separate the good from the evil, and until then, He allows the good and evil to coexist until the judgment day. By the design of God, the Evil will serve to become the place of revelation of God's greatest good, that is God's Mercy.

So, what is needed and expected of us is faith and acting upon it. As Scripture says: "Love covers multitude of sins" (1Peter 4:8). We are called to act with prudence: choosing good and avoiding evil. At the end of times, we will be judged by Divine Mercy and not by any human sense of justice. Only God knows what is in the heart of the man. God bless everyone always!!!

Let's have a great celebration of God's love in the sharing of our feast of Saint Anne! Let's see how God chooses the winners of the raffle, how children enjoy the games, how everyone enjoys the food and each other. St Anne pray for us!

MENSAJE DE NUESTRO PASTOR – 16th DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Queridas Hermanas y Hermanos,

Este Domingo celebramos la fiesta de Santa Ana nuestra Patrona, junto con San Joaquín son los padres de la Santísima Madre. Que atmosfera de fe y amor debe haber estado presente en su hogar, ya que Dios pensó que era apropiado confiarles este precioso regalo de la Inmaculada Concepción, la Santísima Madre misma. Que maravilloso hogar debieron haber creado para la Madre del Hijo de Dios. Sin embargo, ¿Qué sorpresa y desafío deben haber encontrado al enterarse del embarazo de su hija antes de que se fuera a vivir con su esposo José? Solo en el cielo encontraremos respuestas a esas preguntas, y seguramente nos sorprenderá saber cuan humanos eran y cuan temerosos de Dios y fieles a Dios y entre sí.

Ya sabemos que Jesús es el único salvador del Mundo y de todo ser humano. Pues todos queremos participar de la obra de Jesús, porque todos queremos participar de su gloria. Participamos de ella con la actividad de llegar a la gente con la palabra y el testimonio de vida, el testimonio del cuidado de Dios y de los demás. Queremos salir de nosotros mismos hacia los demás. Así que seamos parte del trabajo de la Iglesia, para que podamos ser parte de las festividades en el cielo por la vida eterna después de nuestra muerte. Que la Obra de Dios eche buenas raíces en nuestras vidas y de buenos frutos de buenas obras para la vida eterna como nos pedía Jesús el Domingo pasado. El propósito de nuestras vidas es llegar al cielo, así que sigamos nuestro camino hacia él.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos explica lo importante de la existencia del mal en el mundo. ¿No es parte de nuestras preguntas en la vida: porque nos suceden cosas a nosotros y a los demás? Con la parábola de hoy, Jesús responde a esa pregunta de cómo el Mal vino al mundo, no por hacerse el dueño, sino por la negligencia de los sirvientes. El mal no puede tener su origen en Dios. Su razón y origen va más allá del hombre.

“La muerte vino al mundo por la envidia del Diablo, y la experimentan los que le pertenecen” (Sabiduría 2, 24). La siembra del mal vino por culpa del pueblo, porque no estuvo alerta. Esta falta de vigilancia es aprovechada por el enemigo para sabotear el trabajo del agricultor. El enemigo siembra una mentira en el corazón del hombre, que produce desconfianza, desesperación, egoísmo (Genesis 3,1). El mal viene en tinieblas y pasa desapercibido. Las semillas del bien y del mal crecen paralelas en el corazón del hombre, la verdad y la mentira existen una al lado de la otra y no siempre son capaces de reconocerla. El esfuerzo humano por eliminar el mal externo termina en herir a la persona humana que se identifica con el mal, y eso es un error porque ningún hombre es totalmente malo, siempre hay algo de bueno en cada ser humano. No podemos condenar el bien de la persona por nuestro odio al mal.

Incluso en la Iglesia no podemos eliminar totalmente el mal haciendo en la Iglesia de los puros o perfectos, porque sería otra distorsión de la vida, ya que la iglesia de personas perfectas no existe aquí en la tierra. Será una Iglesia santa, perfecta y gloriosa después de la segunda venida de Cristo.

Hoy, la iglesia no es una Secta de puros y perfectos, sino una asociación de pecadores necesitados de Dios.

Dios nos invita a esperar pacientemente el tiempo de la cosecha, cuando sus Ángeles separaran los buenos de los malos, y hasta entonces, El permite que el bien y el mal coexistan hasta el día del juicio. Por designio de Dios, el Mal servirá para convertirse en el lugar de revelación del mayor bien de Dios, que es la Misericordia de Dios. Entonces, lo que se necesita y se exceptúa de nosotros es la fe y actuar en consecuencia. Como dice la Escritura: “El amor cubre multitud de pecados” (1 Pedro 4:8). Estamos llamados a actuar con prudencia escogiendo el bien y evitando el mal. Al final de los tiempos seremos juzgados por la Divina Misericordia y no por ningún sentido humano de justicia. Solo Dios sabe lo que hay en el corazón del hombre. ¡¡Dios los bendiga a todos siempre!!!

¡Tengamos una gran celebración del amor de Dios compartiendo nuestra fiesta de Santa Ana! Veamos como Dios escoge a los ganadores de la rifa, como los niños disfrutaban los juegos, como todos disfrutaban la comida entre ellos. ¡Santa Ana ruega por nosotros!

DECIMO SEXTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Jesús utiliza parábolas sencillas y ejemplos de la vida cotidiana para ilustrar qué significa el Reino de los cielos, el Reino de Dios. Dentro de las mismas, de una forma u otra, recurre en ocasiones a la imagen del sembrador que en su época era visible de forma habitual cuando alguien iba de camino de un pueblo a otro.

Hoy en día, sin embargo, estas imágenes pueden perder parte de su fuerza si no conocemos la tarea del sembrador y el mundo agrícola. Aunque siempre sean fuente de sabiduría y se comprendan en su mayor parte.

La parábola del trigo y la cizaña nos invita a reflexionar sobre la buena y mala semilla, yendo más allá de las apariencias externas, éstas nacen sin que el sembrador las haya sembrado, pero por ello, no puede levantar todo el sembrado, sino que espera con paciencia a que llegue el tiempo oportuno para recoger lo sembrado y desechar las malas hierbas, por ello, el Señor nos enseña a saber también ser pacientes con los tiempos de Dios y mirar nuestra propia cizaña, para respetar la buena semilla sembrada en nosotros. Y así poder distinguir los frutos buenos de los malos, en nosotros y en los demás y así confiar en la misericordia de Dios, que es el Sembrador de la Fe.

<Vous rosques, en Ramassant l' Ivraie, d'arracher en meme temps le bon blé> Freres et soeurs bien Aimé, le Christ a une vision realiste de notre Monde. Il n'est ni un optimiste qui ne voit pas le mal, ni un pessimiste qui ne Trouve rien de bon autour de nous. Notre humanite est un melange de bien et de mal, de grace et de péché.

Dans notre propre coeur, les deux existent côte à côte.

St Paul disait : < vouloir le bien est à ma portée, mais non pas l' accomplice: puisque je ne fais pas le bien que je veux et commets le mal que je ne pas> (Rm 7,19).

Freres et soeurs, Le message de la patience de Dieu est celui que le Christ a proclamé toute sa vie. Lui qui est allé vers ceux et celles qui sont blessés, brisés, désorientés: les prostituées, les scribes, les collecteurs d'impôts. Pour le Christ, il n'y a rien de fixé d'avance et de tout peut changer. Il ne désespère jamais de transformer l'ivraie de nos coeurs en bon grain! Nous avons des exemples dans le nouveau Testament: zachée, Marie Madeleine, la Samaritaine, pierre, Paul....remolienda de grands pécheurs qui sont devenus des saints.

Le Christ nous dit Aujourd'hui : ne vous laissez pas piéger par <ce que pensent tout le monde, attention aux jugements hâtifs> . Avant- de juger, laissez entrer dans nos raisonnements des critères evangeliques Fre m ak sè m yo : pa jije Pou yo pa jije w. Bondye sel ki se jij . Sharing Our Gifts through the CMA

Stewardship is the grateful response of every Christian disciple to share our God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure in a way that passionately sets our hearts on fire and touches the lives of others, as we live the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is an excellent way to journey through the Pillars of Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service to express your gratitude to God.

Through the Pillar of Hospitality and Service, many parishes form CMA committees to support a smooth and organized Appeal effort and by creating a welcoming environment for all. Others share their gifts by volunteering in the ministries that the CMA supports, such as formation classes and parish outreach programs.

Through the Pillar of Prayer and Formation, the Catholic Ministries Appeal brings us closer to those we help and support as we become more "connected" with our sisters and brothers through prayer and evangelization ministries. We may wish to pray for those who support and volunteer for the committee and for those who receive support from the appeal.

The CMA provides an opportunity for stewards to use their treasure to serve more than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers each year in our formation and Catholic Charities pastoral programs. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.

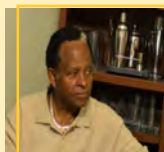

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is Stewardship in action!
