ALL NIGHT PRO-LIFE VIGIL

Every 3rd Friday of the Month; 9:00p.m. to 6:00a.m. in the Chapel next to Parish Business office. All are welcome.

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Happy 4th of July !!! Happy Independence Day !!! No taxation without representation !!! It is great to have the freedom, to be respected with equality for all, and to have equal rights.

It is great to have self governance, to be able to define where we want to be, and how we want to get there. But all that comes with a great responsibility, for our choices, be it personal as well as national, or any society group that we belong to.

All those choices, we have to verify with the meaning and the destiny of human life. Our faith plays not a small role in it. So our - independence - is to make us free from human overpowering control, but it should become our dependence on our reason and the reality of the purpose for which God created us. We may figure it out by our thinking and praying, or we will find it out on the last day from which we can't take our independence. So Lord, please keep us independent from our ego and dependent on You always.

This past week we celebrated two big saints, Apostles Peter and Paul. So different in their experience of Christ and of Church, united in the martyrdom for same Christ and same Church. Their life teaches us about the path of life and of faith, that we all share through the Church. If you want to understand your spiritual journey, it would be good for you to analyze theirs. It is a journey of discovering who Christ is for them, and than who they are for Christ, and how that affects their lives. After them, there is an avalanche of saints, who may fascinate us, although they all received something from the Apostles Peter and Paul, because of their significance for the early Church and for the witness to the Risen Christ.

And yet, Christ had many more disciples, as today's Gospel tells us: " the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit". Did you ever think that you are in that group of 72 ??? Did you ever think that he is sending you, to prepare a place for his coming: to your family, to your home, to your friends, to your parish, to your town, to your country, to your world, to your universe ??? How different you are from the Apostles? How necessary it was for others to go and to prepare a place for Christ than ??? How necessary is it today ??? Don't we need Christ today ??? If yes, fill than the call as one of the 72 to go to all places that you believe Christ needs to go, to prepare a place for his coming. Unless you think, that there is no need for Christ to come, than there is no need to go.

Sometimes we may think, that he can sent others and we can be independent and do our own thing, but do we really want to be independent from Christ ???

In today's second reading St Paul says: "May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world."

Happy Independence Day, Happy 4th of July to you all, and to all your loved ones.

Last Monday we welcomed Fr. Milciades from Paraguay as our summer visitor. Please let him know how appreciative we are of his presents and his talents. I ask, if anyone could hand him their guitar, he could play some great songs of worship and praise, and more.

This week we will welcome our new Associate Pastor, Father Victor Evangelista Valses, from El Salvador, so let us show him our hospitality and let us encourage him in his adaptation to his new parish family, to his new country, new culture, same Church.

God bless you all and always !!! Have a great weekend !!!

La moisson est abondante

Quelle est cette "abondante mission" dont parle Jésus? Le champ de la moisson n'est autre que le vaste monde, tel que les disciples le découvriront au lendemain de la Pentecôte. la mission est l'œuvre du Christ qui envoie, non une décision ou une lubie personnelle. Jésus envoie la ou il doit lui-même se rendre: il n'abandonne pas ses disciples a eux-mêmes. Il ne propose aucune recette missionnaire, mais montre dans quel esprit doit se faire l'annonce évangélique. Il faut commencer par croire que Dieu travaille les cœurs, et donc que la moisson est mure. si la moisson piétine, c'est faute d'ouvriers apostoliques suffisamment nombreux, compétents, et convaincus. On ne part pas annoncer l'Evangile dans un but de conquête: sans défense, tel un agneau, sans argent, sans mettre en oeuvre des moyens prestigieux, le disciple de Jésus sait que la paix de l'Evangile doit trouver par elle-même le chemin des cœurs. Enfin, il renoncer a vouloir comptabiliser échecs ou succès. "Seigneur, préserve-nous des honneurs factices et bien superflus pour que ton règne d'amour soit notre premier souci."
