24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This past week we remembered those who perished on the 9/11 and those who were victims of gang violence and their families. We pray for healing of their hurts and hope for their lives. Certainly, those events changed our lives forever.

This Sunday we will make our second collection for the victims of hurricane Harvey and Irma, we will support the people whose lives will be affected for very long time. We also will continue to pray for the people of the Caribbean who suffered through those same hurricanes and Mexico that was hit by earthquakes. As we hear stories of disaster and death and tragedy, we hear as well the stories of great courage and survival, of help and rescues made by normal everyday people showing their great humanity. We hear the stories of providence and miracles for those who can see them more clearly, as they were unexpected and surpassing, the "new normal", that is not pretending anything but being grateful for being alive.

Our kindness needs to be our way of life, as we who perceive to be blessed, we need to share those blessings with those less fortunate. Solidarity, it is a natural human response to human misery and need. Charity, it is a gift of faith and of heart in response to God's love and our brothers need. It's hard to think of that magnitude of devastation and work that lies ahead of the southern states, until they can come to what we could call "normal".

As for 9/11, so for many people who were affected by this devastations now, their life will never be the same as before. We all look differently on the power of nature and human fragility in the face of potential disasters as we could see it now. I liked the statement made by Florida's Governor before Irma's landfall when he said- I'm paraphrasing - that, as a state they have done what they could and now our first resource is PRAYER - confessing that simple faith in the Lord's power to save. He and He alone. All human ways and plans may fail, but God's plan is better, is above, is beyond, is infinitely greater.. Now we can have more vivid imagination about the biblical flood and the Ark of Noah, and many other instances beginning with creation and finishing on salvation. Every word from the Bible seems more vivid and realistic than ever before. But as well, our thoughts about the humanity are reaffirmed and raised highly because of the examples of selfless love and sacrifices.

Lord, bless all those who look to your heart for strength and courage, to deal with the challenges that they have to face now, in recovery of their lives, to what is going to be the "new normal", that is the changed life. Let that, change, mean as well that we be closer to God and closer to each other, more sensitive and more prayerful, always and in all circumstances.

In the Gospel of today Jesus invites us to be merciful by forgiving always. It is interesting, that it was not Jesus who pushed, on the matter that was so essential as we understand from his forceful explanation. "How often must I forgive?" was the question put by Peter to Jesus. Than Peter was "smart" by suggesting answer: "As many as 7 times ?" He was thinking of himself as generous, but Jesus answer blows his mind: "I say to you, not 7 times but 77 times !" Peter was probably thinking, it was better to be quiet, because now he could not hold even a grudge, now he can't justify any unforgiveness. Probably it stood in his head after betraying Jesus, when he hated himself for what he did to Jesus. It was hard for Peter to forgive himself, but that was the way he was learning to forgive others. This is why Peter could get the keys of the Kingdom, and the powers to forgive sins, because he knew the need to be forgiven and the extent of forgiveness that had no limits - forgiving always. It's difficult for the human mind, but it is needed by the human heart.

Thank You Lord for teaching us the lesson, thank you Peter for asking the questions. As we know than, - forgiveness is not an option for the Christian, it is a necessity, it is a way of life.

God bless everyone !!! God bless America !!! Fr. Stan

We had a wonderful celebration last weekend, honoring the Blessed Mother of Ecuador. I was happy that one of my good friends from Poland, Fr. Adam, was here to celebrate with us that night.

The children and young adults did such a wonderful job in honoring the Blessed Mother, the patron saint of their home country.

Where are we as the Church of Long Island?

Bishop Barres Authorizes Special Collection to Aid those Affected by Hurricane Harvey

ROCKVILLE CENTRE, N.Y. – August 28, 2017 –The Most Reverend John O. Barres, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Rockville Centre, today asked for prayers and a special collection be taken in the parishes of the Diocese of Rockville Centre during the weekend of September 2-3, 2017 or September 16 -17, 2017, to assist those in the Gulf Coast region suffering from the after affects of Hurricane Harvey. "We join in prayer and solidarity with all those who have been and continue to be impacted by Hurricane Harvey," said Bishop Barres. We pray for the victims and their families during this tragic time. We also pray for the heroic first responders and rescue personnel, some now coming from our own diocese to aid and assist, that our mother Mary wraps them in her mantle and protects them as they save others. We also ask the parishioners of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, still feeling the effects of Superstorm Sandy, if they are able, to help our brothers and sisters in Christ down south." To contribute to the Diocese of Rockville Centre's Hurricane Harvey Fund, parishioners are asked to contact their local parish or they can send a donation to the Finance Office, Diocese of Rockville Centre, P.O. Box 9023, Rockville Centre, NY 11571-9023. Checks should be made out to the Diocese of Rockville Centre. "Hurricane Harvey" should be marked on the memo section of the check. For more information call 516-678-5800, ext. 622.

Our collection will be 9/16-17.

of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston

Statement from Bishop John O. Barres on DACA decision:

The Diocese of Rockville Centre stands in unison with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) in its position seeking the continuation of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program (DACA). The USCCB, along with the Diocese of Rockville Centre, believes that the dignity of every human being, particularly that of our children and youth, must be protected. Today's decision makes clear the need to promote and pursue comprehensive immigration reform in our country. Following the recent pastoral visit to our diocese by Cardinal Rosa Chavez, we will continue to be present to our beautiful Hispanic community and in solidarity with them.

Many thanks to all for making this a beautiful Procession!

Labor Day is an opportunity to take stock of the ways workers are honored and respected. As Pope Francis pointed out, "Work is fundamental to the dignity of a person. . . . It gives one the ability to maintain oneself, one's family, to contribute to the growth of one's own nation."

For many people, especially for the poor, who may be unemployed or underemployed, the struggle to support their families is a daily battle. Please consider supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal which supports the programs and services that assist families and individuals struggling in our communities.

OUTREACH

The generosity of the parishioners of St. Anne Parish allows us to reach out to people in our Brentwood/Bay Shore neighborhood who struggle every day to make ends meet.

Thank you to all who donate to our food pantry. During August 2017, we were happy to assist 168 families, 27 seniors, 238 adults and 254 children. We also helped 33 new families.

Our school supply drive was very successful. We were able give school supplies to 85 families for their children to start the 2017-2018 school year. We had a very generous donor who gave us more than 80 backpacks filled with school supplies. Thank you to her and to all who gave to this yearly drive.

Our anonymous donor also assisted in filling our pantry shelves with $1500.00 of food and toiletries. We are so grateful for her generous donation.

Toiletries are always appreciated by our clients. Here are the items most needed: toilet paper, tissues, paper towels, shampoo, conditioner, body wash, soap, deodorant, toothpaste, shaving cream, disposable razors, diapers (size 4 & 5), baby wipes, feminine hygiene products, pet food and laundry detergent.

There is a box in our church near the statue of St. Anne for you to drop off your donated items.

Thank you for caring for the poor in our parish community.

Recordando y cuidando a nuestros sacerdotes ancianos.

Cuando recuerda a su párroco preferido u otro sacerdote que estuvo en su parroquia, ¿Alguna vez se ha preguntado cómo estará o donde estará viviendo?

Pues bien, para nuestros sacerdotes ancianos que viven en la "Residencia Geriátrica de Vida Plena San Pio X" en Amityville, la vida es buena y a veces bastante atareada

"La Residencia San Pio X es un lugar acogedor y que estimula espiritualmente. Estoy feliz de estar aquí. Tanto la atención que recibo como la compañía que tengo, son excelentes; aquí estoy con sacerdotes que han hecho cosas maravillosas durante toda su vida."

- Rev. Edward Kealey

"¡Venir aquí fue una feliz sorpresa!!! La atención es estupenda, y lo maravilloso es sentir el toque humano. La dedicación del personal es extraordinaria."

- Rev. Peter Liu

Pese a estar jubilados nuestros sacerdotes ancianos mantienen su rol pastoral y el residir en San Pio X les da la oportunidad de ser miembros activos de nuestra comunidad Diocesana. Ellos están "Aún en servicio" como nuestros maestros, consejeros y guías espirituales.

El próximo fin de semana será la colecta pro fondos de la Residencia Geriátrica San Pio X en donde viven sacerdotes jubilados. ¡Por favor sea tan generoso como sea posible! ¡Muchas Gracias!

Remembering and Caring for our Senior Priests

Do you ever think about a favorite Pastor or Parish Priest and wonder how they are and where they may be living?

Well, for our Senior Priests who are living at St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility in Amityville, life is good and sometimes very busy.

"St. Pius X is an inspiring and friendly place. I am happy to be here. The care and company are excellent and I am with priests who have done wonderful things their whole lives."

- Rev. Edward Kealey

"Coming here was a very happy surprise!!! The service is wonderful but the human touch is outstanding. It is amazing how attentive the staff is."

- Rev. Peter Liu

Even in retirement our senior priests retain roles as our shepherds, and St. Pius X enables these dedicated men who live there to be fully engaged members of the community. "Still on duty," they serve as our teachers, counselors, and spiritual leaders.

The special collection for retired priests living at St. Pius X Enriched Living Facility will take place next weekend. Please be as generous as possible! Thank You!

Pardonne a ton prochain...

Aux yeux du sage qui s'exprime dans la première lecture, il existe un lien étroit entre le pardon humain et le pardon divin. Cette logique, Jésus la prend pleinement à son compte dans l'Evangile de Matthieu. Alors que Pierre pensait faire preuve d'une grande magnanimité en évoquant un pardon renouvelé sept fois, Jésus demande à ses disciples la démesure et l'excès. Pourquoi? Parce que telle est l'attitude de Dieu envers nous. Jésus refuse de d'entrer dans des calculs et justifie un pardon sans limite par la parabole du serviteur endette.

Vis-à-vis de Dieu, nous sommes tous dans la situation de ce serviteur qui doit à son maître une somme fantastique. Par un amour incompréhensible Dieu nous a remis notre dette. Comment des lors pourrions-nous avoir envers un compagnon de service une rigueur extrême et mesurer notre patience à pardonner? Situ aimes comme Dieu aime, tu cesseras de compter, nous répond Jésus. Père, que ton Esprit efface nos rancunes et rende notre cœur semblable à celui de ton Fils.
