26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

We continue our prayers and support for the people affected by hurricanes in the southern USA and Caribbean's Islands, as well as for people of Mexico hit by earthquakes. This weekend we continue to make an appeal for our participation in the Catholic Ministries Appeal. It is a major fund raiser for many diocesan ministries and services, that are essential to our catholic life on Long Island, as well as in reaching out to those in need around the world. Catholic Ministries Appeal is one of our ways to be charitable and sharing our faith with those in material and spiritual needs. As Jesus says: "Whatever you did to the least of my brethren, you did it to me." Let's not hesitate to support those ministries, especially that after we fulfill the goal assigned to our parish, we get back 20% rebate, so it becomes a support to our own parish as well.

In the Gospel of this Sunday, Jesus gives us a parable of two sons, one of them is rebellious and the other is a pleaser, who says what someone wants to hear without doing what he promises. The rebellious son is resentful of being asked to work in the vineyard and lacks of respectful response, but ultimately corrects himself and goes to do what his father asked him. Instead the second son pleased his father with positive answer, but failed to make it happen in reality perhaps distracted by his own personal interests. It is obvious, that the first son even with his initial rebellion, later goes to do the will of the father. The second son seemed to be right in response at the beginning, but never did the will of his father. The apparent knowledge of the will of his father, was not enough to win over his personal interests.

Jesus compares this situation with the behavior of the sinners, who do wrong things at times, but ultimately the experience of life brings them back to God, as true source of happiness. More difficult is with self righteous people who being self sufficient and self fulfilling do not see the need of turning to God.

In the second reading Saint Paul invites us to be humble considering of ourselves and of others, without being selfish and seeking vain glory. He gives us a description of Jesus attitude that is one of the most beautiful statements made about Christ: Philippians 2: 5-11

"Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

Saint Paul, gives us this most beautiful description of the attitude of Jesus and tells us how through humility and obedience Jesus fulfilled God's purpose and will. Subjecting himself to the cross and gaining salvation for all, Jesus gained power for his name to subject all things to himself for the glory of God the Father.

Jesus is the son who understands the Father, knows his will, and humbly cooperates with the plan for the good of all, making it a total success for everyone who turns to his name for rescue and salvation.

Do we need to be rescued and saved ? What is it, that we need Jesus for in our lives? Let us than pray for the lesson of humility, that we be able to draw strength from what Saint Paul revealed to us about the attitude of Christ, that we will become humble to follow the example of Jesus and learn to follow in his footsteps, for the good and for salvation of our own and for all. Jesus save all souls !!! God bless everyone !!!

Fr. Stan

I want to invite all our parish ministries and parishioners to join us on Friday, October 13, 2017 to celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Fatima.

We will have Adoration after the 12:00 noon daily Mass, followed by the recitation of the Rosary every hour up to 9:00p.m. that evening. Please contact Marge in the Parish Business Office 631-273-8113 to be assigned to one of the hours. I would like each hour covered so that the Blessed Sacrament is never left alone.

St. Anne's Ministry of Consolation

St. Paul teaches that when one person in the community suffers, so do we all. Thus, at the time of the death of a loved one, we minister to the grieving family through the Ministry of Consolation.

Contact is made and an invitation is extended to the family to join with our Ministry intake person, to prepare for the Mass of Christian Burial.

Family members are invited to choose the readings and music for the Mass and are encouraged and supported through out the entire preparation of this final process of burial in celebration of their loved one.

All are invited to consider being a part of this Ministry, either as a Intake Person, Acolyte or Greeter for the Mass by calling the St. Anne's Parish Center at 631-273-8113.

Come be the face of St. Anne's to a grieving family.

Come be the face of God in their time of need.

"Les prostituées et les publicains vous précèdent dans le royaume de Dieu. "Telle est la pointe de la parabole de l'homme qui avait deux fils. Il ne fait pas de doute pour un juif que celui qui a accompli la volonté de son père soit celui de ses fils qui lui a obéi en fait, même s'il lui a préalablement opposé un refus verbal. Le différend entre Jésus et les chefs des prêtres et les anciens porte sur l'interprétation de la volonté divine. Pour le Christ, le règne de Dieu est arrivé en sa personne depuis la prédication de Jean Baptiste. Or, les chefs religieux du peuple qui prétendent obéir à Dieu, n'ont pas obtempéré à l'invitation de Jean à se convertir. Au contraire, les publicains et les prostituées, gens qui n'ont cure d'obéir à Dieu selon les responsables religieux d'Israël, se sont pourtant ravisés et se sont convertis. Eux entreront dans le royaume, mais pas vous! La préférence de Jésus va aux pêcheurs qui, ayant d'abord dit "non", se sont repentis et ont cru à la parole de Jean Baptiste. Le Second fils, c'est aussi la personne qui dit "oui" à une religion conformiste et non à l'Evangile des Béatitudes
